

Back Country Briefs

Daylight Saving Time ends Sunday morning at 2 - it's the time to set back the clocks one hour; pick up that hour you lost in the spring and make sure you don't get to church an hour earlier than services are scheduled. Follow the old rule - "In the spring, you spring ahead; in the fall, you set the clock back an hour!"

All Saints Day, one of the most important Feast Days on the Roman Catholic Church calendar, will be observed on Monday at St. Frances R.C. Church, Carverton, and its sister parish, Blessed Sacrament R.C. Church in Centermoreland. On Tuesday, All Souls Day will be celebrated in both churches with special masses, Rev. Father John Foley, pastor, has announced.

Tuesday is General Election Day when Pennsylvania voters will cast ballots for United States and state senators and representatives, as well as state governor. Polls will open for voting at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m.

Election Day also is an occasion where several area groups serve noon and evening meals as fundraisers. Mountain Grange 567 of Carverton will continue its practice of serving noon and evening meals on Tuesday when members of the Grange will feature wimpies, hot dogs with or without sauerkraut, soup, pie and coffee at the noon meals, and pancakes and sausage for the evening meal, starting from 4:30. Meals will be served in the Grange Hall, which also is a balloting spot for that area.

At the Orange Community Hall in Orange, where voters of Franklin Township cast their ballots, United Methodist Women of Orange UM Church, will serve hot roast beef sandwiches and soup for the noon meal, and a hot roast beef dinner for the evening meal.

At the Centermoreland United Methodist Church, where the church annex serves as the polling place for voters of Northmoreland Township, church groups will serve a noon meal and an evening meal, and conduct an all day benefit bake sale on Election Day. Noon meal will consist of homemade vegetable soup by the United Methodist Women of the church. Evening meal by the MM's Class of the church school will be chicken and waffles with homemade pie from 5 to 7.

John Jeremy Cyprich, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cyprich, Sr., of Perrins Marsh, Orange, was baptized at the morning worship service Sunday in Orange United Methodist Church with Rev. Dr. Allan Cease, pastor, officiating. John Jeremy is the first born for Mr. and Mrs. John Cyprich, Sr. Mrs. Cyprich is the former Miss Debbie Reese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Reese, Orange.

Friends of Stanley Weaver of Centermoreland will be glad to learn he came home last Wednesday after a five-day stay as a medical patient at Tyler Memorial Hospital in Tunkhannock. Fairs and Spares Class of Carverton United Methodist Church is completing plans for a benefit chili sale to be held Wednesday, Nov. 17. All orders will be by takeouts, and orders should be placed by Nov. 14 with any member of the class or by calling George Parrish, class president.

Megan MacConnell Larmouth, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Larmouth of Dundee, N.Y., was baptized at the morning worship service on Sunday in Carverton United Methodist Church. Rev. Dr. Allan Cease, pastor, officiated. Megan also has a brother, three and one-half year old Bartholomew. Mrs. Larmouth is the former Miss Lois Joseph, daughter of Mrs. Lewis Joseph and the late Lewis Joseph of Prattsburg, N.Y. Mrs. Larmouth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Larmouth of Carverton. Mrs. Larmouth's mother, Mrs.

Lewis Joseph, an aunt, Mrs. Susan Joseph of Naples, N.Y., attended the baptismal service Sunday.

Richard Prynne of Carverton and Harold Seiple of Mount Zion were patients at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital at presstime.

Friends of Mrs. Marian Brace of Orange will be glad to learn that she is now at the Leader West Nursing Home in Kingston where she is undergoing therapy after being a patient in Wilkes-Barre General Hospital for several weeks as a result of an injury suffered in a fall at home.

Other area patients in hospitals at presstime included Mrs. Lillian Hoffman of Mount Zion, who was a patient at the NPW Hospital in Plains Township, and Harry Spare of Carverton, who was a medical patient at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital.

Supervisors of Franklin Township will meet Monday evening at 8 in the basement of the Orange United Methodist Church. One of the items on the agenda will be an input from interested taxpayers on the use of Federal revenue sharing funds that will be received by the supervisors during 1983.

Ella Moore Class members of East Dallas United Methodist Church will sponsor a benefit bazaar and bake sale on Saturday from 10 to 4 at the church on Lower Demunds Road.

Pastor James Howell of the Northmoreland Baptist Church at Centermoreland will be the guest speaker at the Men's Fellowship to be held tomorrow evening at 7 at the Bloomingdale Bible Church, Schickshiny.

Mr. and Mrs. George Marstell, Jr. are home after a trip to Hawaii. Mrs. Marstell, Jr. is the former Miss Jane Silvi of Wyoming. Marstell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Marstell, Sr. of Bodle Road. The couple was married in St. Joseph's Church, Wyoming, earlier this month.

Rachel Rebecca Rowlands, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry (Karen) Rowlands of Centermoreland, came home on Saturday from Nesbitt Memorial Hospital where Rachel Rebecca was born on Oct. 19. She is the third daughter for the Rowlands, and has two sisters, Nancy Jane, five, and Amy Lynn, 16 months. Mrs. Rowlands is the former Karen Golden, daughter of Mrs. Lottie Golden of Centermoreland. Mr. Rowlands is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rowlands of West Wyoming. Great grandmothers are Mrs. Helen Rowlands of West Wyoming and Mrs. Rebecca Grubb of Ravenswood, West Virginia.

Workmen completed installation of new guard railing on Orange Road at the foot of Sickler's Hill in Orange. The old wood-posts were replaced with metal posting and metal wire rope. The repairs are a welcome improvement at the foot of the long hill, especially for the coming icy road conditions.

Anthony LaNunziata, infant son of Joseph and Dolores LaNunziata of Orange, was baptized at the 12 o'clock mass Sunday in St. Frances X. Cabrini R.C.

Noxen Area Notes

Supervisors of Monroe Township will meet Monday evening at 7:30 at the home of the board's secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Arlene M. Traver, Tunkhannock Road, Bowman's Creek. The board will receive oral or written comments from taxpayers on the proposed use of 1983 Federal revenue sharing funds. Supervisors expect to receive a total of $18,990 in revenue sharing funds during 1983. A 1982 estimated carryover of $500 in revenue sharing funds also will be available for 1983.
