Band Sponsors hold Christmas boutique

The second annual Christmas Boutique and Craft Show of the Lake-Lehman Band Sponsors Association will be held on Saturday, Nov. 20, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Elementary School Building in Lehman. Lehman is located on Rt. 118, approximately six miles northwest of Dallas.

This show-sale will feature professional craftsmen and artists with a wide selection of leathercraft, woodcarving, wooden toys, quilts, jewelry, straw and natural weavings, needlework, stained glass, doll houses and miniature furniture, porcelain, paintings, collectibles, holiday items and much more.

Chairman Edna Yatsko announced that the committees include: Reindeer Restaurant, Joann Bogdan and Doris Sando; Santa's Sweet Shoppe, Marlene Reed and Jane Stepanik; Craft Corner, Joyce Youren and Publicity, Louise Schwartz. Reindeer Restaurant will serve homemade soups, sandwiches and desserts during the entire day of the show. Reservations are not required for lunch.

There will be no charge for admission or parking and the public is cordially invited to attend. This event will benefit the Lake-Lehman High School Band.

HOLIDAY FAIR--"Happy 70th Anniversary Nesbitt" will be the theme for the annual holiday fair sponsored by the Nesbitt Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, Nov. 3 and 4 at the Nesbitt Memorial Arts Building. Representatives from all eight branches of the hospital auxiliary will feature various booths and displays with handmade items for

Crispell's observe anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crispell of Noxen observed their 57 wedding anniversary, Sunday, Oct. 17. They were married in Bridgeport, N.Y., on Oct. 17, 1925, by the Rev. Charles Hess, who served as principal of the old Beaumont High School before he entered the ministry. Their attendants were Mr. and

Mrs. Walter Weaver. Mrs. Crispell is the former Miss Helen Traver, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cecil Traver, early residents of Evans Falls and Noxen Township. Mr. Crispell is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Crispell of Noxen. The couple has four children, Dr. Earl Crispell of San Francisco, Calif.; Mrs. Elvin Bean, Noxen; Elvin Crispell, Delavan, Wis., and Edward of Noxen.

Parade set for Sunday

The Dallas Kiwanis Club announced today that the 21st Annual Halloween Parade will be held Sunday, Oct. 31. The parade chairman, Mike Kerkowski, said it would form at the Dallas Township Elementary School at 1 p.m. Children of every age are invited to dress-up; join the parade and compete for contest awards.

The parade will proceed down Church Street to Center Hill Road then to Lake Street ending at the Eastern Star parking lot where treat bags will be given out and prizes awarded for the prettiest, funniest, scariest, most original and best group costumes. The Women of Kiwanis are judging. The Dallas High School Band will join the march. In case of rain, festivities and judging will take place at the form-up location, Dallas Township Elementary School.

The old-time circuses that travelled from town to town by wagon were called "mud operas."
