Winter Carnival - something for everyone

Dallas Township PTO is once again sponsoring its Winter Carnival to be held at the school on Saturday, Dec. 4, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

There will be many activities for all ages including the children's "Corner Shoppe" where children can buy gifts at child size prices. Children can have their faces made up at the Makeup Booth. There will be many games with prizes for children. One addition to the games this year is "E.T.'s Walk". Children will be able to watch cartoons and visit with Santa. Back Mountain Jay-C-Ettes will be taking pictures of the children with Santa for those who so desire. Homemade baked goods will be available plus a white elephant sale.

In addition to a separate Christmas Store just for adults, there will be a game room for adults. Winners of the adult games will win chances on large prizes such as a Party Time Instant Camera by Kodak, dinner for two at Mill Creek Farm, $50 value, and two gift certificates from Daring's Market.

Refreshments will include pizza, hot dogs, whimpies, soda, and coffee.

There are three items to be raffled off, a ceramic Christmas Village valued at over $200, donated by Millie Robinson and family; a gingerbread house, donated by Joanne Freeman and an afghan donated by Mrs. Alice James.

Chairman of the event is Mrs. Jackie Downend and her co-chairman is

PTO meets

P.T.O. of the Dallas Borough Elementary School will hold their next meeting Tuesday, Dec. 7, at the school. Children and their parents are invited to attend as special emphasis will be given to trains and train displays.

Plans for Santa's Secret Shop will be finalized by Jean Hopa, chairman. Santa's Secret Shop will take place Wednesday, Dec. 8 through Friday, Dec. 10. It is designed to enable the children to select their own special holiday gifts for their family and friends. Items from the Secret Shop will be displayed during the evening.

The children in Mrs. Spear's third grade class recently prepared a Thanksgiving Feast.

Bank dividend

First Eastern Corp. has declared a dividend of 65 cents per share payable Jan. 3, 1983 to shareholders of record Dec. 10. The announcement was made by Richard M. Ross, Jr., president, following the November board meeting held at Main Offices in Wilkes-Barre.

First Eastern Corp. reported a record third quarter when, for the first time in its 120 year history, profits for the three month period ended Sept. 30 exceeded $2 million.

Earlier this month, First Eastern Bank, the principal asset of First Eastern Corp., became the first financial institution in Northeastern Pennsylvania to announce plans to offer discount brokerage services.
