Northmoreland auditors reorganize

Members of Northmoreland Baptist Church gathered for a wild game supper Friday evening, which was followed with special music and hymn singing, and a devotional address by Pastor Dan Istvanik of the Dimock Baptist Church.

United Methodist Women of the Dymond Hollow UM Church will meet this evening at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. Laverne Logan on Route 292.

Some scholarships are available to United Methodist Youth in the area through sponsorship of the Wyoming Conference of the United Methodist Church. High school seniors interested in the scholarships may secure additional information by contacting Rev. Donald Walter at the Centermoreland UM Church parsonage. Scholarships are available at Albright College, Bennett College, Drew University at Madison, NJ, Hartwick College, Lebanon College, Lycoming College, SUNY (State University of New York) at Oneonta, NY, and Syracuse University.

Edward O'Malley of Tunkhannock underwent surgery Friday at Tyler Memorial Hospital. O'Malley is manager of the Harding branch of Franklin First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Wilkes-Barre and his many friends in the area extend best wishes for a speeding recovery.

Byron Thomas and Leona K. Sickler, Northmoreland Township, have sold property in Northmoreland Township for $6,617 to David A. Martin, of Wyoming, according to a property transfer recorded at the Wyoming County Courthouse.

Northmoreland Township auditors held a reorganization, Jan. 4, at the home of the secretary, Mrs. Beatrice Beatty, Route 292, Centermoreland, and began work on the audit of 1982 receipts and expenditures of Northmoreland Township supervisors. Comprising the board of auditors are Lorraine Schray, Donald Faux and Mrs. Diane Faux, who was named recently to the post of auditor to fill the vacancy created by the recent resignation of Hilda Vivian.

Bible study group of Centermoreland UM Church will meet Saturday evening at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. Gerry Blizzard.

Area churches will join with Back Mountain churches for the service to be held Sunday evening at 7:30 in St. Theresa's R.C. Church, Shavertown, marking the observance of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

Reorganization complete at CTE

Early in 1982, Commonwealth Telephone Enterprises, Inc., (CTE), a conglomerate of communications companies from Dallas, and Rui Lopes Associates (RLA), a multinational management and telecommunications consulting firm from Sunnyvale, Calif., entered into an agreement for the services of Rui Lopes as chief executive officer of CTE. The purpose of the agreement was to conceive and place in motion a long-range reorganization plan for CTE.

A.J. Sordoni, III, Chairman of CTE, and Rui Lopes, president of RLA, have jointly announced that Lopes has performed his services to the satisfaction of both parties, culminated by a significantly improved operations performance of CTE for the year 1982. Effective Jan. 12, Lopes is resigning as president and chief Executive Officer of CTE. A.J. Sordoni, III has been appointed to the additional positions of president and chief executive officer of CTE. Lopes will continue to assist CTE as a management consultant to the chairman of the board.

Windows smashed

Harveys Lake Police Chief Lionel Bulford noted incidents of windows, being smashed with air rifles, have been called to his attention. He warns persons responsible will be prosecuted and reminds residents that it is unlawful for juveniles to carry air rifles unless in the company of an adult.
