REBENNACK'S APPLIANCES

REBENNACK'S APPLIANCES has been a family business for more than 50 years. One of the oldest appliance businesses in Wyoming Valley, it was founded by Albert Rebennack and there are now three stores run by the three sons. Allen manages the retail store, 259 Wyoming Ave., Kingston; Robert, Appliance Parts & Supply Co., subsidiary of Rebennack's) 936 Market St., Kingston; and Ted manages the store at 113 North Memorial Highway, Shavertown. Ted is shown above with some of the appliances. Primarily a retail store, he handles Frigidaire, Maytag, Kitchen Aid, Magic Chef, Fedders and Tappan.

JAY-DEE SHOES & CLOTHING

In business for 37 years, for the last five years JAY-DEE SHOES & CLOTHING has specialized in athletic footwear and presently has one of the largest selections of its kind in Northeastern Pennsylvania. Because of Jay-Dee's fine selection, customers travel great distances to purchase some of the top sellers such as Nike, Pony, Brooks, Adidas, Converse, Jordache and Smurfs. They also have a wide selection of jogging and active wear clothing, a Dexter line of casual and dress shoes, plus Herman and Wolverine for the sports-minded person. Jay-Dees at 1 South Main St., Plains, is the place to shop for the sports or active-minded person.

COOK'S PHARMACY

COOK'S PHARMACY has been a household name for years in Kingston and now has a second pharmacy serving Back Mountain residents, having purchased the business formerly owned by Sheldon Evans. Both stores are open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily and 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Sunday. Pharmacists hours are the same as the store hours. COOK'S refill all third party prescriptions and honor welfare, Blue Cross and insurance cards. Customers may have receipts for income tax, other tax purposes and medical claims. Employees give prompt, courteous service and customers will find a complete line of greeting cards, Russell Stover candies, magazines, paperbacks, milk and hunting and fishing licenses. Lottery, daily number and instant lottery tickets also can be purchased at COOK'S.
