Here and There

Swoyersville and Luzerne football fans were disappointed this past weekend as the Jets were shut out by the Miami Dolphins by a 14-0 score. Many of them had the Jets playing in the Super Bowl.

This was no fault of the Jets' Coach Walt Michaels as he did his usual fine job and he conducted himself well during the interview after the game. He gave no apologies, he said that someone has to win and lose just like Dallas. He gave no excuse for his players but some of them are grandstanders.

Lou Michaels was right in his prediction as he said that the one who gets the breaks, makes their own breaks, will win the game between the Dolphins and Jets. How right he was. Lou knows his football.

Disappointed Jet fans were John Foglietta, Max Chihego, Ron Alunni, Magistrate Andrew Barilla Jr., David and Andy Barilla III, Emery Washko, Bob Gaydos, Cutter Karasinski, Shanky Adamchak Jr. and Sr., Frank Roche, LaFoof Gonglefski, Ted Ryzdzewski, Dempsey Sekerah, Joe Parker Podskoch, Ray Podskoch, Bernie Saypack, Frank Jacien, Buck Urban, Chet Zukosky, Ron Gula, Bill

Romanchick, sisters, Mrs. Jean Kapral, brother, John and all of her friends and relatives.

Two of our top residents are patients at the local hospitals. They are Andrew Barilla Sr., Slocum St., Swoyersville who is a surgical patient at General Hospital. Andy better get well soon as the mushrooms will be coming out. He is a great gardener and mushroom picker.

The other resident is Charley Washko, Hughes St., Swoyersville. He is a medical patient at NPW Hospital. Charley is a Yankee hater and he will have to put up with Billy Martin and the Yanks this year. Get well soon Charley.

Forty Fort and Swoyersville residents were saddened over the death of Joe Polinski of Murray St., Forty Fort. Joe was well known in the two boroughs and will be missed.

Councilman Jim Pugh and his son David spent several days in Miami, Fla., visiting Jim's brother John and his family. They also visited Disney World and the other sites there. Much to Jim's disappointment was the fact that he couldn't get tickets for the Jets-

with Joe Gula

Dolphins game. That's okay, Jim, better luck next time.
