Mrs. Stella Tinsley

Mrs. Catherine Levandoski

Two honored at Meadows party

Residents of the Meadows Apartments, Lake Street, Dallas, honored two nonagenarians at their recent holiday party, which was catered by the Regency.

Mrs. Stella Tinsley and Mrs. Catherine Levandoski were honored guests and presented with a special cake.

Mrs. Stella Low Tinsley was born, Dec. 18, 1888, in Wisconsin, near Harrisburg. She has two sons, four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Catherine Covaleski Levandoski was born Nov. 18, 1890, in Glen Lyon. She has three sons and three grandchildren.

Santa Claus surprised everyone by appearing with one of his elves and had candy canes for everyone.

Dallas High School Chansonnaires presented a program of unusual holiday music followed by the traditional carol singing.

Helen Parsons was chairman of the holiday dinner. She announced a New Year's Party would be held under the chairmanship of Eleanor Montross.

Newcomer's Club plans meeting

The general membership meeting of Newcomer's Club of Wyoming Valley will be held Monday, Feb. 14, 7:45 p.m., at the Grace Episcopal Church in Kingston. As a Valentine's Day treat, the members will enjoy a demonstration of "Cake Decorating" presented by Karen Clemow.

Other February activities include a Valentine Cocktail Party to be held Feb. 12 at the home of Mrs. William Tower, Shavertown. All members are invited and should call Mrs. Brian White of Dallas to make arrangements to attend.

A general member "Coffee" will take place Thursday, Feb. 17, from 10 a.m. until noon at the Dallas United Methodist Church. Also on the agenda is a coupon and refund meeting at the home of Joan Beattie, Feb. 22.

Plans are being made for the Club's annual "Spring Craft Boutique" to be held this year, March 19 in the Kennedy Lounge of Merrick Hall, College Misericordia, Dallas. As always, the Boutique will feature the work of talented local craftsmen, brought together to offer a variety of interesting and original crafts. A bake sale and raffle will also be a part of this welcome event, which is being co-chaired by Mrs. John Slaby and Mrs. Brian White.

All newcomers to Wyoming Valley are welcome to join the club which is both a social and service organization.

Alice Ann Cooper

Shavertown girl enters pageant

Miss Alice Ann Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Cooper, Shavertown, has been selected from among hundreds of qualified applicants to participate as an entrant in the Miss Pennsylvania-USA Pageant to be held March 2, 3, 4 and 5 in Greensburg, Pa.

A 1983 graduate of Lake-Lehman High School, Miss Cooper is a member of the senior chorus, president of the Y-Teen Club, health assistant class I and II, and the law enforcement class.

Miss Cooper graduated from a local modeling school and participated in many area fashion shows. She was a hostess at the Music Box Dinner Theater and the 1982 Custom Car Show held in Kingston. She also has been photographed for various brochures and appeared as a cover girl for Counter Point Magazine. The Pittsburgh Modeling and Casting Agency has recently notified her that she will be appearing in national commercials.

Alice will participate in this year's pageant, which is the official preliminary to the Miss USA Pageant through the sole sponsorship of Mary Taylor's Hair and Skin Care Centers.

Mary Taylor, Designer and Beauty Consultant, will personally attend to all of Alice's hair and skin care needs.
