

Lake-Noxen Elementary basketball teams and coaches

BUCKS—Kneeling, left to right, Heather Whipple, Kelly McNulty, Trina Strickland, Karen Stevens; second row, Rod Zerfoss, Asst. Coach, Jimmy Faerber, Aaron

KNICKS—Kneeling, left to right, Molly white, Danielle Parise, Robin Martin, Karen White, Kristy Nordfors; second row, Harriet Smith, Robert Opperlee, Chris

HAWKS—Kneeling, left to right, Sheila Dobrawalski, Leesa Sorber, Casey Cummings, Heather Harris; second row, Dory Zacharias, Brian Murphy, David Rittenhouse, Crystal Newell, Mike Taylor, coach, Armonde Casagrande. (Mark Moran Photo)

Six teams of Lake-Noxen Elementary fifth and sixth graders have been competing weekly in the PTA sponsored intermural league throughout January and February. The season will culminate in an All-Star game on Feb. 22, but in the meantime, the athletes are enjoying some mid-winter activity.

In the opening game Tuesday night, the Bucks edged the Hawks 16-15. High scorer for the Hawks was Dory Zacharias with eight points. Dave Gordon and Missy Yanchulis each made six points for the Bucks. The official was Ken Carey.

Warriors trounced the 76'ers 20-6 in the next game. The high scorer for the Warriors was Howard Getz with eight points. Mike Leahy scored four points for the 76'ers. The officials for the game were Ken Carey and Rod Zerfoss.

In the final round, Tuesday night, the Knicks beat the Sonics, 30-16. The high scorer for the Knicks was Chris Engle with 20 points while Mike Barber made eight points for the Sonics. Officiating for this game were Rod Zerfoss and Dave Covert.

Thursday night found the Hawks trouncing the Sonics 22-4. High scorer for the Hawks was Dory Zacharias with 20 points. T.J. Zerfoss and Mike Barber each made two points for the Sonics. The officials were Rod Zerfoss and Ken Carey.

Next the Bucks beat the Warriors 19-12. High scorer for the Bucks was Dave Gordon with 11 points. Mike Simoson tossed in seven points for the Warriors. Officiating were Armonde Casagrande and Ken Carey.

Finally, the Knicks trampled the 76'ers 25-2. Chris Engle was high scorer for the Knicks with 25 points. Shelly Barcheski made two points for the 76'ers. Rod Zerfoss and Armonde Casagrande were the officials.

76ERS—Seated left to right, Missy Barcheski, Heather Williams, Shelly Barcheski, Jenny DeLeur; second row, Craig Young, Mike Leahy, coach, Charlotte Williams, Ray Hall, Jason Beaver. Absent: Assistant coach, Kevin Carey, Chris Brucher, Cheryl Bender. (Mark Moran Photo)

SONICS—First row, left to right, Tammy Smith, Corinna Smith, Missy Meade, Kathy Young, Tina Wivell; second row, Eddie Kellym Harry Loeffler, Coach Galen Waltman, Mike Barber, T.J. Zerfoss. (Mark Moran Photo)

WARRIORS—First row, left to right, Leslie Visneski, John Weber, Howard Getz, Coach Ed Dubil. (Mark Moran Photo)
Jenny James, Carrie Wilson, Becky Sorber; second row, Asst. Coach Eddie Dubil, Kim Sevanski, Mike Simoson.