Honor thy mother in the Dallas Post

The Dallas Post is planning a special tribute to Mothers for our May 4 edition. Honor your mother in a really special way, through the newspaper.

A clear black and white photo reproduces best in a newspaper and is preferable to color shots. For design purposes, a plain background is better than a cluttered one.

Bring a photo of your mother to the Dallas Post, Gerald Avenue, Dallas. Attach information including her name, address, names of her children and grandchildren (if applicable), print it on back of the photo.

Deadline for submitting photos for our Mother's Day tribute is Tuesday, March 15. Photos will be published on a first come-first served, space available. Get your photo in early to reserve a special spot for your tribute to Mom.

CHAPLAIN SPEAKS TO WOMEN OF ROTARY--Rev. William Kennard was guest speaker at a recent meeting of Women of Rotary. Seen after the meeting at the Irem Temple Country Club are MaryAnn Dowey, program chairperson; Rev. Kennard, chaplain for Hospice St. John; Marsha Landis, president and Pat Baird, publicity chairperson.

Hospice services subject of talk

Dallas Women of Rotary held their monthly dinner meeting recently at Irem Temple Country Club Clown Alley. Mrs. Marsha Landis presided.

Reports were given concerning the club welfare projects and wheel chair services. Wheelchairs are loaned at no charge to persons with a need. Other patient care equipment include walkers and crutches and are available at the home of Rotary Ann Mary Ann Strom, Lake Street, Dallas.

Speaker for the evening was Rev. William Kennard of Harveys Lake and also pastor at Alderson and Evans Falls United Methodist Church. He presented slides and spoke on the services of Hospice St. John. Hospice St. John is a group of persons, who provide care for terminally ill persons and their families in their own homes.

Hospice St. John started as a branch of the Lutheran Welfare Services which began locally in 1978 with the majority of people volunteering spiritual, social and medical care. Their headquarters are now at 383 Wyoming Ave., Kingston.

The next meeting of the Dallas Rotary Women League

reorganizes

Swoyersville Men's Softball Leagues will reorganize at a meeting to be held Feb. 16 at 7 in the Swoyersville Municipal Building. At this time rosters will be distributed, fees discussed and league rules interpreted. The leagues are open to area B, D and D teams.

will be Thursday, Feb. 17, 6:30 p.m. at Irem Temple Country Club. The speaker for the evening will be Lt. Jerry Cookus of the Wilkes-Barre Police force explaining Citizens Neighborhood Crime Watch.

More Rehabilitative Services

Leaders' extensive Rehabilitation Services for the short term or extended care patient sets it apart from most nursing homes.

With special programs in Physical Therapy, Respiratory Therapy, Occupational Therapy, and an innovative program for the seriously injured, we are able to improve each patient's enjoyment of life by helping him or her regain lost capabilities. As a result, many patients return home after successfully completing Leader rehabilitation programs.

Consider Leader. We believe you'll agree... We're more than just another nursing home. Much more.
