Walsh scores 28 points against Eagles

Dallas Coach Kit Karuza saw his Lady Mounts take a 30-25 lead into the locker room at halftime Friday afternoon, then gradually saw his hopes for his girls second half all-win record gradually slip away. Seton Catholic's high scorer Mary Ann Mozal and senior Beth DeNardi combined to lead the Lady Eagles to a 42-40 second half.

DeNardi scored 11 of her 23 points in the fourth period. Mozal, whose shooting was cold through most of the first half, rallied in the second half to end with second high game points of 19. Lady Mount Kathy Walsh connected for 28 points before she fouled out midway through the fourth period. She put nine shots through the hoops and made good 10-12 from the charity stripe. The loss dropped the Dallas girls into a 5-1 tie with the Lake-Lehman girls. They must win their games with Meyers on Tuesday and Lake-Lehman Friday while Seton loses to Crestwood to at least tie for the second half title.

In Tuesday's game with Hanover, Dallas girls held the Lady Hawks to only three points in the first half while scoring 43 to take a 43-3 lead at halftime.

Going into the fourth quarter, the Lady Mounts were in front 58-7 and outscored Hanover 21-10 in the final stanza to win 79-17.

Michaels' departure confusing

BY LEE L. RICHARDS

Most local grid fans were still puzzled last week over the recent departure of the Jets by Coach Walter Michaels. I learned first-hand from a very reliable source that an incident after the loss to the Dolphins triggered Walter's ouster.

Here's what supposedly happened. The Jets had a charter plane and it was only a little over half-filled for the return flight to New York.

Michaels had some members of his family and several friends in Miami. Since there were so many empty seats he asked permission from Jet prey Jim Kenseil if his little party could return with the team? The Jets' boss flatly refused Michaels' request stating: "This plane is for the team and official party."

Being a notoriously hard loser, Michaels didn't take too kindly to Kenseil's remarks.

On the flight back Michaels was still bitter over the sloppy conditions of the field, especially the fact the Dolphins didn't have the surface covered at all before the game.

As the story goes, Michaels made some bitter remarks. Kenseil told Michaels to show some class. He also made a snide remark about Swoyersville and the mentality of this area.

Michaels then allegedly went after Kenseil and several coaches had to separate the two men.

That was Michaels' down fall.

It was an obvious power play by another no-neck and the man who built the Jets in his tough and competitive image is out of a job.

Professional sports is strictly a business.

CLIPBOARD NOTES:

Coaches Clinic International was held at the Cross-gates last week and Director Jerry Preschutti has the popular football confab in high gear...Peter Adonizio, Chuck Adonizio, and Dr. Gerry Gibbons hosted a little party for Pitt Coach Foge Fazio and assistant Andy Urbanic after both lectured...Dallas Coach Ron Rybak got to meet the Pitt coaches and socialized with some of the Panther backers...Former Dallas boss Jack Jones also dropped in to visit.

GAR Coach Charlie Fick spent sometime with Urbanic getting tips on the Panther passing game...George Curry, the head Bulldog at Berwick, confided he's still perturbed over the bad press his players received from local media after losing in playoffs. George makes no bones about it his team could be better this season.

Wyoming Sem's Marv Antinnes and Gary Vanderburg really haven't received the recognition they deserve for splendid coaching jobs they've done. Gary ranks with the best roundball coaches in this end of the state. He's also a very solid grid coach.

Meanwhile, Coach Rybak told me he's already got his Mountaineers on an off-season weight program in preparation for some spring drills. He's got the program headed in the right direction.

From what I gathered talking with Curry and his top

Eagles come from behind

Seton Catholic trailed throughout most of the game with Dallas Friday night but rallied in the fourth quarter to outscore the Mounts 20-11 and cop a 60-57 win.

The Eagles trailed 46-40 going into the final period but Mike Farrell scored nine of his 18 points and Fran Barlik connected for a game score of 19 points. Barlik did some stellar long range shooting which kept the Eagles in the game and broke their five-game losing streak.

Dave Thomas and Tim Groves collected 14 points each. Thomas put four through the nets from the field and hit 6-6 from the foul line. Grove hit 2-2 from the line and put six good ones through the nests from the field. Ed Gorey hit for 10 points, four goals from the floor and 2-2 from the free stripe. Steve Thomas added up 11, putting in four shots from the field and dumping in 3-4 from the line.

The teams played even in the first quarter, ending 12-12 but Dallas outscored the Eagles 16-13 in the second for a 28-25 lead at halftime. The Mountaineers pulled in front 46-40 going into the final frame when Farrell, Barlik and Jim Tippett poured it on to take the win.

Dallas surprised a visiting Hanover team Tuesday night with a convincing 85-58 win paced by Dave Thomas' 26 points, 11 of them made in the second period. The Mountaineers outscored the Hawks 23-8 and held a 40-24 lead at halftime.

They continued to outscore the visitors 26-13 in the third period but fell behind 21-19 in the final frame when Coach Clarence Ozgo emptied his bench to give all players a chance in the game.

Ed Gorey connected for 18 points, 10 of them in the third period. Tim Grove added 16 and Steve Thomas put in 13.

Dallas plays Meyers and Lake-Lehman this week and are in a 'must win' situation in order to hit the top four.
