Police Reports

Drunk driving charge levied

District Justice Earl Gregory has issued a summons on charges against Howard E. Stritzinger, 32, RD 3, Dallas. Stritzinger has been charged with driving under the influence by Dallas Township Police Chief Carl Miers, following an accident on Lower Demunds Road, Wednesday, Feb. 16.

Police report Stritzinger was traveling south on the roadway when his vehicle left the pavement on to the south berm. In attempting to correct the car, Stritzinger crossed into the northbound lane and struck a 1981

Mercury driven by Peggy Ann Blee, 39, RD 3, Dallas. Blee was transported to Wilkes-Barre General Hospital where she was admitted with head and internal injuries.

Stritzinger was charged and released on his own recognizance.

Local fender benders noted

Two fender benders occurred in area shopping center parking lots last week with Kingston Township and Dallas Borough police investigating. On Tuesday, Feb. 15 a 1970 Ford driven by Julianne Jones, 185 Meadowcrest, Trucksville was struck by a 1976 Cadillac driven by Joan M. Bruce, Pioneer Avenue, Dallas, while backing out of a parking space in the Shavertown Acme lot. Patrolman Walter Davis investigated.

A similar occurrence took place in the Dallas Shopping Center lot, Thursday, Feb. 16. Dallas Borough Police Chief Ed Lyons investigated the incident which involved Frank T.

Harry, RD 4, Dallas and Donna L. Baloga, Valley View Trailer Park. The mishap occurred at 12:38 p.m.

Goble injured on Rt. 309

Ramona Goble, 254 Scott St., Wilkes-Barre, was injured last week when the 1976 Plymouth she was driving was struck in the rear on Route 309, Dallas Township. Goble told police she was traveling north and slowed to make a right turn into a private driveway. Ronald DeRemer, Pellam Trailer Park, driver of the second vehicle was also traveling north and was unable to stop in time to avoid striking the Goble car. The impact forced the Goble vehicle to spin in a clockwise motion and come to rest against an embankment in the driveway. David Richards, Rice Street, Dallas, witnessed the incident which was investigated by Dallas Township Police Chief Carl Miers.

Two car mishap reported

No injuries were reported when two vehicles collided on Rte. 309, Shavertown, last week. A 1980 Ford driven by Jennie Volack, 118 Owens St., Swoyersville, pulled out of the Back Mountain Shopping Center in a northerly direction on the highway. The car was struck by a 1973 Dodge driven by Kenneth Allen Jones, RD 1, Pittston, also traveling north.

The incident occurred at 3:20 p.m., Monday, Feb. 14. It was investigated by patrolman Walter Davis.

New Jersey woman injured

A passenger in a 1978 Datsun was slightly injured in a one car mishap last week in Kingston Township.

Karen Hanko received minor abrasions and bruises on her legs when the vehicle swerved to avoid a cat crossing E.

Franklin Street and struck a utility pole. Driver was Mark Hanko, Somers Point, N.J.

Misericordia reports theft

College Misericordia reported the theft of a portable cassette deck with radio and turntable and a Smith Corona typewriter from its administration building. The theft was reported to Dallas Township police, Feb. 16. Date of the incident is unknown. Value of the merchandise is $402.
