Center Open House Planned

Mercy Center Pre-School and Kindergarten will hold an Open House on Sunday, March 20, from 1 to 3 p.m. All interested parents and their young children are invited.

The classes are held in the Mercy Center

Building, located on the campus of College Misericordia in Dallas. Those who visit will see the open classrooms with multiple learning centers, innovative ideas as demonstrated by the work of the children who currently attend the school, and have the opportunity to meet and talk to the teachers, Sister Stella Maris and Sister Rose Ellen Li.

The program is Christ-centered, but open to children of all denominations and races. Full and half-day sessions are available. Registrations will be accepted for children who will be four or five years old by Jan. 31, 1984. The Sisters of Mercy of the Union, Scranton Province, sponsor this learning center for young children.

Plan 'Art Event' at Lake-Noxen

Three local artists, Sue Hand, Geri Williams and Kathleen Semmel, will exhibit and demonstrate their art at "The Big Art Event" to be held at Lake-Noxen Elementary School on Friday, March 18.

The P.T.A. sponsored art show will also feature over 1,500 pieces of student art work, a giant mural to be completed by visitors, and seven student arts and crafts demonstrations. Children from kindergarten to sixth grade will show their skills in such areas as paper-mache, pinatas, weaving, clay pinch pots, tie and dye and more.

The event is open to the public and is scheduled from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Sue Hand teaches drawing, painting and calligraphy at her studio-gallery in Dallas, and has taught at College Misericordia and Penn State.

She has studied with many well-known artists and is a member of the Wyoming Valley Art League and the Sordoni Gallery. Kathleen Semmel is particularly interested in wildlife painting. She will be demonstrating acrylic painting techniques. She began painting eight years ago and has since exhibited her work at the Benton Bank, and the Salt Box Restaurant in Benton. Kathleen enjoys painting murals in homes.

SCIENCE IS FASCINATING—Kathryn Gregory poses with the highly sophisticated telescope she will use to enhance her courses in sky phenomenon.

State Grant Buys Telescope

Kathryn Gregory, a science teacher at Lake-Lehman Junior-Senior High School, recently captured a $3,500 grant from the state Department of Education.

This grant, one of 194 awarded throughout the state, enables Lake-Lehman to acquire a highly sophisticated telescope, which will be used to enhance various studies of sky phenomenon. Ms. Gregory's proposal was selected from 1,206 submitted by various teachers throughout the Commonwealth.

In addition to the telescope, the grant will allow for the provision of photographic facilities to be used in conjunction with it. This combination of technology will allow astronomy students to photograph sky phenomenon and use the developed photographs for intensive individual and group study.

Ms. Gregory, the recipient of Bachelor and Masters degrees from Penn State University, has had a distinguished teaching career, including service as a member of the faculty at Wilkes College. She has presented scientific papers at conventions of the National Science Teachers Association, held in Dallas, Texas and Cincinnati. She is a member of the adjunct faculty at Penn State at Wilkes-Barre. Her public school experience includes service at Wyoming Valley West.

Her intense interest in natural science led Ms. Gregory to a recent sabbatical leave. While on leave she visited the volcanoes of Hawaii, the Rocky Mountains, the deserts of the southwest and the Everglades of Florida. All of these travels were keyed to wilderness study and were undertaken in conjunction with the Smithsonian Institution.

James L. Nicholas, principal of Lake-Lehman, praised Ms. Gregory's efforts: "In every sense of the word Ms. Gregory is a master teacher. She is totally dedicated, utterly professional and provides enormous motivation to her students. She makes science a fascinating experience but, more than that, she is a concerned and caring teacher."

PTO Schedules Spring Musical

The Dallas Elementary P.T.O. Spring Musical will be presented Thursday, March 24, at 7 p.m.

Parents and students are invited to attend and enjoy the talents of the children who will take part in the program.

Under the direction of Mrs. Marilyn O'Connell, the fourth grade will present two skits titled, "Little Train;" and "The Tortoise and the Hare." A "Sound of Music Medley" will be presented by selected second grade girls and the Recorder Band will play several selections. Costumes and props for the musical were constructed by P.T.O. members.

A brief P.T.O. meeting will also be held. Cheryl Richardson, president, will lead the meeting. Many activities are being planned for the children. Patrolman DeWald, from the Nanticoke police force will soon speak to the students. He will also demonstrate the skills of his trained dog, Kojak. The final roller skating party will be held Thursday, April 7.

Honor Roll Named

Several students were recently named to the second trimester honor roll at Wyoming Seminary Lower School, Forty-Fort.

Local students achieving high honors include John Aponick, Christina Connor and Erin Moore of Dallas.

Named to regular honors were Rose Ann Serpico, Trucksville; Christopher Kersey, Scott Moore, Christina Caputo, Eugene Choi and Heather Aponick, Shavertown; Jennifer Banks, Dallas; Charles Parente, Harveys Lake, and Paul Bartley, Tunkhannock.

SAT's Slated at Dallas High

The Scholastic Aptitude Test will be given at Dallas Senior High School, Saturday, March 19. Students, especially juniors, planning to attend two-year or four-year colleges should take this exam. Students who plan to attend Luzerne County Community College do not need to take this exam, but should plan to take the ACT's on April 16.

The doors will open at 8 a.m. Students are reminded to bring their admission ticket and two number two pencils. Walk-in registrations will be accepted if the student brings to the test center a completed registration form, some type of identification, and a check or money order for $30.50 made payable to ATP. Registration forms are available in the Dallas High School guidance office.
