RUMMAGE SALE: Committee members for the Wyoming Seminary Lower School Rummage Sale, sponsored by the Lower School Parents Association are ready for the annual event. Plants, crafts, new merchandise, antiques, small appliances, furniture, household goods, clothing, shoes, sewing supplies, and toys are just a few of the many items that will be on sale beginning Thursday, April 7, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.; Friday, April 8, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday, April 9,

Congratulations to the Dallas Cheerleaders who captured another first place trophy at the Pennsylvania Invitational Cheerleading Competition in Harrisburg.

This was the first time in the history of the competition that a group won with a perfect score of 30 in each leg of the routine. A great big cheer of "Bravo" for the girls, their advisor, Mrs. Maryann Storz, and her assistant coach, Tina Charney, for a job well done!

I sat in on a program given by Tom Cesarini, of the Luzerne and Lackawanna County Drug and Alcohol Abuse Council, at Dallas Intermediate School last week.

The movie and talk session, which was viewed by each class individually, proved to be a good sounding board for drug- and alcohol-related questions. In light of the temptations our children face, it is very commendable that Ruth Husband, principal, and her fine teaching staff provide the students with such valuable information.

Dallas resident Dennis Garvey was this year's recipient of the prestigious Benjamin Rush Award, awarded by the Luzerne County Medical Society.

Dennis received the 1983 Individual Award for his many years of service to health oriented organizations such as SOBER (Slow on the Bottle, Enjoy the Road) and Tot Finders.

An investment broker, Dennis is married to the former Nancy Regan of Dallas. The couple has three children, Caitlin, Meighn and Conner. Congratulations Dennis!

Readers planning to attend the 58th annual banquet of Dallas Chapter 396 Order of Eastern Star are reminded to make their reservations by contacting Elsie Jolley before April 6.

Jane Hudak, a Dallas senior, has been chosen for All State Chorus. A voice student of Harriet Santos and a piano student of Professor Rosendo Santos, Jane is a member of the Junior Mozart Club and serves as soloist at the Huntsville United Methodists Church. The daughter of Betty and Al Hudak, Overbrook Avenue, Dallas, Jane will enter Wilkes College in September to pursue an accounting degree.

Best wishes to Sara (Missy) Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Turner, Sutton Road, Shavertown and Richard P. Waslick, son of Rose Ann Waslick and the late Edward Waslick, Bennet Street, Luzerne who recently announced their engagement. The couple will be joined in marriage July 9 at St. Theresa's Church in Shavertown. Also congratulations go to Cathy Lee Coolbaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laing Coolbaugh, Dallas and Rodman Lewis Shoemaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Shoemaker, Trucksville who also became engaged recently. The couple will be married June 18 in Trucksville United Methodist Church.

Guess what? Dana and Richard Lavelle, Valley View Trailer Park, Dallas are thrilled with their new daughter, born March 25. Congratulations!

Newcomers' Club April Events

The Newcomer's Club of Wyoming Valley will welcome Spring with a special General Membership Meeting on April 11, at 7 p.m., at the Grace Episcopal Church in Kingston.

The members will be enjoying a delicious covered dish dinner, as well as holding the election for next year's officers.

April activities include a pot luck luncheon being held April 6, from noon until 2 p.m. at the Dallas United Methodist Church. The New York trip, scheduled for April 23, is filled up and everyone is looking forward to an exciting day in the "Big Apple." This month's craft will be "counted cross stitch on waste canvas," taught by Kathy Greger. Any member wishing to take part in craft night should call Kathy so that arrangements for supplies can be made. A good turnout is expected for this interesting and useful craft instruction to be held on Wednesday, April 20, at 7:30 p.m. at the Dallas United Methodist Church.

The Gourmet Dinner Group will be getting together on April 16 to partake in a delectable French Menu. Anyone wishing to join the group for an evening of gourmet eating and just plain fun, call co-chairmen Jill Finlay or Beth Ward.

The Newcomer's Club welcomes all new residents of the area to become members of this social and service organization offering something of interest for everyone. Anyone interested in joining can contact Kathy White of Dallas.
