Diane Muller Weds

Miss Diana Marie Muller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Muller, Sweet Valley, and Michael Andrew Kasko, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kasko Jr., Chase, were united in Holy Matrimony on Oct. 9.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Benjamin F. Krouse, in the Peek's Family Wedding Chapel, Westminster, Calif.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Michael Muller of Sunland, Calif.

The bride carried a bridal bouquet consisting of white carnations tinted blue, baby's breath and white satin streamers. She wore a quiana styled gown which featured a Victorian neckline and fitted bodice of Venice lace, highlighted with pearls. It also featured a cathedral-length train and long classic sleeves with matching lace and pearls on the sides and cuffs. To complement the gown, a waltz-length veil of illusion bordered with matching lace was attached to a Camelot headpiece of matching Venice lace and pearls.

Miss Melinda Muller, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a powder blue formal length gown. She carried a smaller matching bouquet to her gown and the bride's bouquet, consisting of tinted blue carnations, white baby's breath and light blue satin streamers.

of the bridegroom, from Rantoul, Ill. served as best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the couple's new apartment, in Tustin.

Mrs. Kasko is a 1981 graduate of Lake-Lehman High School. Mr. Kasko is a 1979 graduate, also of Lake-Lehman High School. He is currently serving as a KC-130 plane captain with the U.S. Marine Corps in El Toro, Calif.

The couple are now residing in Tustin, Calif. Upon Mr. Kasko's separation with the Marine Corps in May, the couple will honeymoon while traveling cross country, heading back to Pennsylvania.

Methodist Manor Plans Bazaar

Homemakers' School Nears

The date when Home Economist Pam Johnson will be presenting the "Come Share More of the Good Life at Homemakers School 1983" is fast approaching. April 21 marks the day for the program to be held in Dallas at College Misericordia.

Helpful hints will be provided in this entertaining cooking program. Recipes demonstrated will include appetizers, main dishes, breads, desserts and more. During the program each attendee will be able to follow along with Pam in a free copy of the "Come Share More of the Good Life at Homemakers School 1983" Cookbook. Three large demonstration mirrors provide for easy viewing of the recipe preparation from each seat in Merrick Hall.

Appliances for use on-stage will be provided by Karyl Appliances.

Debbie Zurinski will be mistress of ceremonies. The Dallas Post is proud that the Back Mountain is one of 300 locales selected from 48 states for a 1983 Homemakers School. This event plays to capacity crowds across the country and is the largest homemaker-oriented program in North America.

The Dallas Post and area merchants make this show possible with their support, along with such nationally famous sponsors as Blue Bonnet, Certo, Fleischmanns, Hershey, Nabisco, Premium, Presto, Reeses, Sunbeam, Velveeta and Sure-Jell.

Plan now to attend the free Homemakers School on April 21 at 7 p.m. in Merrick Hall at College Misericordia. Bring a friend - it's your night out!

Concert Slated

On Sunday, April 10, at 7:30 p.m., the Fine Arts Committee of the Shavertown U.M. Church will sponsor another in the series of Candlelight Concerts, "Music of Eastertide," which will feature the Rev. Harriet Santos as soloist.

She will be singing Weinberger's cantata for high voice, "The Road to Emmaus," which is a major work. Mark Van Valin of Williamsport will also sing, and the Concert Choir will participate.

Other music included will be the "Piece Heroique" of Franck; the dazzling "Finale from the 6th Symphony" of Ch. M. Widor for organ solo; the Concert Choir will sing "God So Loved the World" from "The Crucifixion" of Stainer; "Go to Dark Gethsemane" of Noble, and "O Christ, the Heavens Eternal King" of Thiman. Mark Van Valin will sing "The Trumpet Shall Sound" from "The Messiah" of G.F. Handel.
