The wedding will be solemnized June 18, at 11 a.m., in Our Lady of Victory Church, Harveys Lake.

Guild Charter Approved

The Wyoming Valley Embroiderers' Guild has received notice that its charter was approved by the National Board of Directors, Embroiderers' Guild of America and Roberta Johnson, guild president.

The needle arts organization has over 26,000 members nationwide and the newly formed Wyoming Valley Chapter now has 63 members.

Organized in late January by Mrs. Beverly Marchetti and Donna Morgan, the group has held meetings in January and March and "Stitch-Ins" during the month of February. Its next bi-monthly meeting is slated for Wednesday, May 18 at 1 p.m. in the Annette Evans Alumni House, Wilkes College.

Local officers of the organization are: Beverly Marchetti, president; Donna Morgan, vice-president; Gina Thackara, vice-president; Christine Bidding, treasurer, and Susan Absher, secretary.

Further information concerning the Wyoming Valley Embroiderers' Guild and their activities can be obtained by contacting Beverly Marchetti, Dallas.

Shipley Presents Lecture

Dr. Christopher Shipley, assistant professor of English at Penn State University Wilkes-Barre Campus, will present a lecture entitled "The Rake's Progress: The Shape of English Dramatic Comedy in the Seventeenth Century" on Thursday, April 21, 4 p.m., in Hayfield House on the Lehman Campus.

Shipley's presentation is the third in a series of faculty lectures in which several members of Penn State-Wilkes-Barre speak about their research and other academic interests. All lectures are open to the public free of charge.

Shipley joined the Penn State-Wilkes-Barre faculty last fall. He formerly was a part-time instructor at the University of Maryland where he received a B.A. in English in 1972 and M.A. in 1975. He received his Ph.D. from the University of Chicago in 1982 and has been elected to the Phi Kappa Phi and Phi Beta Kappa Honor Societies. He and his wife, Jane, reside in Dallas with their children Rosalind, 4½ and Peter, 1½.
