Here And There

It's good to see John "Jackie" Pauluck back in town once in a while. Jack is the former All-American from Pittsburgh U. and a great defensive end for the Washington Redskins. Those were the days when the Redskin Club used to make many trips to see Jack play with the late Wootsey Urban leading the way along with Henry Charles Orchestra.

Lou Michaels another of Swoyersville's former top NFL greats was featured at the 6th Wilkes-Barre Baseball Card and Sports Memorabilia Show this past Saturday at Nedoff's Restaurant in Wilkes-Barre. Lou was busy signing autographs not only to the youngsters but for adults and senior citizens as well.

Lou can be remembered for his kicking field goals and extra points and playing defensive end for Los Angeles, Pittsburgh, Baltimore and Green Bay. Hewas and is the best left foot kicker ever in the NFL ending his career with 985 points and he ranks high amongst the top scorers.

Swoyersville has many beautiful yards but the mountain side which includes Hill, Mountain, Warsaw, Hughes and Owen Street, Hill has to have the best. There are many beautiful yards and gardens up there.

A Luzerne County Vector Control in cooperation with the Department of Environmental Resources will accept requests for a free Shed Removal for the next two weeks.

Dilapidated wooden sheds and garages which qualify under the Environmental Resources Rodent Source Reduction Program will be removed free of charge during the spring and summer of 1984. Interested residents may contact the Luzerne County Vector Control Office at 825-1698 or the municipal office.

Mayor Anthony Steianowski returned from the Nesbitt Hospital in Kingston to his home on Milbre Street, Swoyersville where he was a surgical patient. The mayor is coming along fine and he would like to thank all of his family, friends and neighbors for their beautiful get-well cards and for their prayers.

Mrs. Rose Skrabut Jones, former resident of Swoyersville was visiting her aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bobb of Brown St., Swoyersville for the past week. Rose Marie and her husband, Dave reside in Essex, Md. where Dave is the head guidance counselor for Baltimore County.

John Maticic Jr. and his son Benjamin John "BJ" visited here this past week from their home in Kingman, Ariz. While here they visited John's mom and dad John and Josephine Maticic of Hillside Ave., Edwardsville and sister Kathy of Hanover Twp., and brother Bob of Pittsburgh. They also visited John's wife, Marianne's parents, Joe and Johanna Gula of Swoyersville and his brother in law and sister in law and family Ron and Carol Gula and children Chris and Staey Marie of Plymouth.

Happy birthday to Dave Check of Maltby Ave., Swoyersville. He celebrated his birthday on May 7. Also to Eddie "Hubby Wheeler" Kolesar of Old Forge on May 13.

Bud and Lorraine Wilson of New St., Swoyersville, Lou Elmy Jr. of Sugar Notch, former mayor there, John and Mary Barber, Plains and Bill and Bev Reese recently returned from Downsville, N.Y. where they were on a fishing trip. It was a successful trip for Elmy, John Barber and Bill Reese as Elmy got a 6 lb. brown trout and John and Bill got three pounders. Buddy was shut out. All in all they had a good time.

Music Box

It is a point of fact that even the most upright, genteel citizen can enjoy the antics of rascals on the stage. And rascals indeed abound in the present production at the Music Box, "Guys and Dolls."

The main characters, transferred to the stage from the beloved stories of Damon Runyon, are the crap-shooters, horseplayers, tinnhorn gamblers and their faithful "dolls" who frequent New York's Times Square.

Performances are presented Wednesday through Saturday evenings with Sunday afternoon matinees, May 18-22, and May 25-29. Admission is $18.50 for a sumptuous buffet meal and theatre. A limited number of theatre-only tickers are also available. For information or reservations, call 283-2195.
