People In The News

Army Capt. Harry D. Owens, Jr., son of Harry D. and Minerva J. Owens, 210 Maple St., Trucksville, has been decorated with the Meritorious Service Medal at Fort Knox, Ky.

The Meritorious Service Medal is awarded specifically for outstanding non-combat meritorious achievement or service to the United States.

Owens, a company commander with the 19th Battalion, 4th Training Brigade, received a master's degree in 1976 from the University of Scranton.

His wife, Beverly, is the daughter of Edward P. and Alice Romanoski of 721 Main St., Duryea.

James R. Farrell, 20 Circle Drive, Dallas, has been named an honorable mention winner in a peace competition that drew nearly 5,000 entries.

James, a ninth grade student at Bishop O'Reilly H.S., advocates limitation of nuclear arms and greater responsiveness of world leaders to peoples' desire for peace.

The essay competition, sponsored by the Christophers, a New York-based movement that promotes the idea of individual responsibility for social improvement, was designed to encourage young people to think about peace.

The theme for the competition was "Youth Participating in World Peace." It was open to students in grades 7 through 12.

Contest winners will be interviewed on the weekly syndicated television program, "Christopher Closes." More than $1,000 in prize money is being distributed and all honorable mention winners are receiving a copy of the Christopher book, "Young Ideas."

Founded in 1945, the Christopher movement popularized the motto, "It is better to light one candle than to curse the darkness."

Michael Hession, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hession, Oak Hill, Dallas, was named most valuable member of the Class of '86 at the President's Awards Convocation at St. Francis College, Loretto. The convocation was held on Tuesday, April 26 at the John F. Kennedy Center Auditorium.

Outstanding students and faculty were honored for academic achievement, service to campus organizations and athletic skill. Hession's was an extracurricular award presented to members of campus organizations.

Olga Arcangelo, 220 Lake Street, Dallas; Alma Misavitz, RD 5, Dallas and Joseph Salata, 224 Highland Ave., Trucksville have been admitted to the John Heinz Institute of Rehabilitation Medicine, Wilkes-Barre.

John R. Alles, Jr., RD 2, Dallas and Albert Ashton, RD 5, Shavertown were among a total of 967 students at Williamsport Area Community College, who have been declared eligible to graduate in May, pending completion of requirements.

Graduating students will receive either certificates or associate degrees in one of more than 55 programs offered by the Community College.

Final Concert

The Fine Arts Committee of the Shavertown United Methodist Church will present its Third Annual Spring Concert on May 22 at 7:30 p.m. Featured in this concert will be the world-reknowned Chestnut Brass Company of Philadelphia, and Brian W. Davey, in a program of music for organ, brass and percussion.

Described as "versatile and unpredictable" by the Philadelphia Inquirer, the Chestnut Brass Company is a vibrant young ensemble that can play almost anything anywhere. Its virtuoso repertoire ranges from traditional music for brass instruments to avant garde 20th century works to jazz, rags, popular, and even movie theme music.

This final program of the 1982-83 Candlelight Concert Season is open to the public free of charge, however, a free-will offering will be taken. Child care will be provided, and a reception will be held in the Social Rooms following the conclusion of the concert. The Fine Arts Committee urges early seating for this program.

The Shavertown United Methodist Church is located on the corner of West Center Street and N. Pioneer Avenue in Shavertown.
