

THE DALLAS POST

Gate of Heaven

Season Ends

The Gate of Heaven basketball program involved a number of students from the school and included biddy teams, junior varsity, varsity and cheerleaders. The biddy program is new to the school and was formed to give younger players exposure to the game of basketball and to competition. It was coached by Chuck Reynolds and held on Saturday mornings. The teams competed against one another for the fun of it, and to master the basics of the sport.

The varsity program was coached by Mike McGroarty and Chuck Wilson. The team participated in the Wyoming Valley Catholic Eighth Grade league and ended the season with a league record of 7-7. Overall, the boys landed a 10-11 record for the entire season.

Team captains were Mike Luksic and Tom Shalata. Both boys were also selected to the league's All-Star team.

Aside from regular season play, the boys participated in a number of tournaments including the Wyoming Valley CYC Tournament, Knights of Columbus Tournament and St. John's Luzerne Tournament.

Cheering the boys on, win or lose, were the cheerleaders. These perky young ladies were coached by first-year coach, Lynn Cutter.

Girls basketball completed a successful session at 8-4. The girls were led by first-year coach, Brian Judge.
