Andrea Bunney recently received first place in the Penn's Woods Girl Scouts "Design the Day Camp Patch" contest.

Her drawing, a rainbow motif, will be used on the official 1983 Day Camp Patch. This patch will be given to all girls attending any of the council-wide day camps this summer. The Back Mt. area is not the only area that will use the patch, as the council extends from Wilkes-Barre to Hazleton to Pottsville and many surrounding areas.

Andrea received the happy news in a congratulatory letter signed by Janet Boyle, Penn's Woods Programs director.

Andrea, a fourth grade student at Lehman-Jackson Elementary, is a member of Junior Girl Scout Troop 626 and is active in various church activities at the Shavertown Methodist Church. She also takes art lessons under the direction of Barbara Hoyson.

Andrea is the daughter of John and Beverly Bunney of Shavertown.
