

Noxen Notes

Mrs. Walter Wandel of Noxen was a medical patient in room 451 at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital at presstime.

Friends of Mrs. Clarence Searfoss of Noxen will be glad to learn she came home last week from Tyler Memorial Hospital at Tunkhannock where she had been a medical patient.

Mark Wandel of Bristol, Pa. has returned after spending several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wandel of Noxen.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rundell, Jr. are rejoicing over the birth of a son, Benjamin Aaron, in Tyler Memorial Hospital in Tunkhannock on June 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crispell and the former's sister, Mrs. Ruth Newberry of Noxen, attended the annual reunion of the Crepel (Crispell) family at New Paltz, N.Y. over the weekend.

Holiday dinner guests of Rev. and Mrs. Jerry Tallent were Mrs. Tallent's father, Walter Wandel and brother, Mark Wandel of Bristol; Mrs. Edward Freeman and the latter's grandson, Joshua.

Counselor training is underway at Noxen Independent Bible Church for the tent meetings scheduled for July 24 through July 27. Next training session will be held Sunday evening at 6:30.

Rev. and Mrs. Roger Ainslie-richards will make the Carverton United Methodist parsonage their residence. It was incorrectly stated in last week's issue of the Post the couple would reside at the Noxen UM parsonage on Tunkhannock Road. Rev. Mr. Ainslie-Richards is serving as pastor of the Noxen-Kunkle-Ruggles UM Charge.

Friends of Mrs. Lulu Richards will be glad to learn she is home after a stay at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital.

Plans are nearing completion for the benefit flea market and bake sale to be held Saturday by the Ladies Society of St. Luke's Lutheran Church of Noxen in the parish hall. A limited number of tables are available and interested persons are asked to contact Mrs. Mary Galka for a reservation.

Tentative date for the annual Sunday School picnic of St. Luke's Lutheran Church of Noxen is Sunday, Aug. 14, at Hansons Park at Harveys Lake.

Belated birthday greetings are extended to Peter Anderson, who celebrated his birthday on July 4; his wife, Mrs. Anderson, who celebrated her anniversary on July 6; to Tommy Bean, who passed another milestone on July 5 and Mrs. Lucille Blizzard who celebrated her birthday on Saturday.

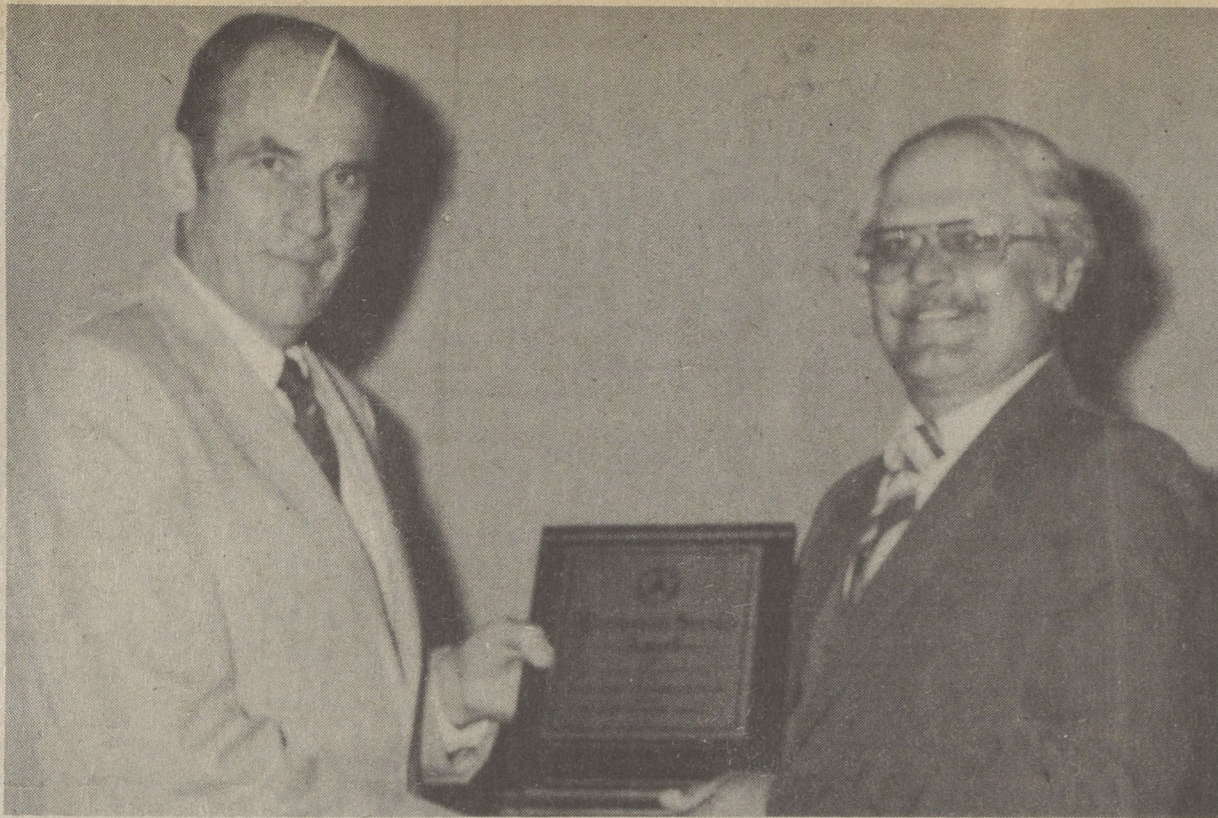

The following area residents are scheduled for jury duty at Wyoming County Common Pleas Court next week: Fredreas A. Fetchko, Jesse J. Hetsheimer, Diane M. Barna, William E. Hoyt and Elwood Patton of Monroe Twp. and Robert T. Gardzalla of Noxen Twp.

Former Resident Works at Village

David Quinn Thomas, a former resident of Midway Manor, Shavertown and South Wilkes-Barre, is currently working at the Olympic Training Village at Colorado Springs, Colorado for the summer.

Thomas is a 1976 graduate of Dallas High School.

Shamus Honored

Back Country Briefs

Mrs. Ellen Murosky of Redlans, Calif. has returned after visiting her mother, Mrs. Rose Jones of Orange. While here she attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Lucy Zarnoch of Orange.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tamalis of Miami Springs, Fla., arrived last weekend to spend the summer at their home in Orange.

Mrs. Deborah Mickou and children, Thomas and Donald, of Athens, Greece, are spending a month with Mrs. Mickou's parents, Rev. and Mr. Donald Walter of Centermoreland. Their husband and father, Captain Kerry Mickou, will arrive on July 26 and join his family in Centermoreland. Following the 30-day furlough from the United States Air Force, Captain Mickou will be assigned to the Lackland, Texas, Air Force Base.

Mrs. Florence Martin of East Dallas was a patient at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital's Room 437 at presstime.

Also a patient there in Room 558 was Mrs. Ella Wolfe of Dymond Hollow.

About 150 children attended the annual Daily Vacation Bible School held at the Centermoreland United Methodist Church. Rev. Donald Walter is pastor.

Plans for the 28th annual chicken barbecue and auction of Centermoreland United Methodist Church are progressing. The benefit affair will be held Friday and Saturday, Aug. 12-13, on the church grounds. Donations for items for the auction are being solicited and donors are asked to call the parsonage at 333-4354 or Mrs. Robert Phillips at 333-4246. Jack Rogers and Clarence "Caddie" Besteder are in charge of solicitations, assisted by Frank G. Williams.

Mrs. Robert Phillips and children Beth and Bobby and Miss Beth Sikowski of Centermoreland have returned after spending the holiday weekend with Mrs. Phillips' brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Fuller in Reading.

Rev. Roger Ainslie-Richards and his wife, REV. Pegg Ainslie-Richards, are residing in the United Methodist parsonage, West Eighth Street and Bodle Road, Carverton. Rev. Mr. Ainslie-Richards began duties on July 1 as pastor of the Carverton UM Charge. In last week's issue of the Post, it was incorrectly stated the couple would reside in the Noxen UM parsonage.

Administrative Council of Dymond Hollow UM Church will meet Monday evening at 7 at the church.

Benefit flea market will be held Saturday starting at 9 at the East Dallas UM Church. Administrative Council and trustees of East Dallas UM Church will meet Wednesday, July 20, at 7 p.m. when plans will be furthered for the benefit ice cream social to be held on Saturday, July 23, and the annual church picnic to be held Sunday, July 31, at Slocum Park.

Mrs. Dolores Kuzma and Karl Besteder of Centermoreland have been drawn to serve as jurors next week in the Court of Common Pleas of Wyoming County at Tunkhannock.
