Aston killed in accident

William Aston, 18, of 25 Stafford St., Trucksville, was killed July 31 when his car ran off the road at the intersection of James and Gibson streets in Kingston.

A passenger in Aston's car, Frank Ariz, 16, of 76 Davis St., Trucksville, was admitted to Nesbitt Memorial Hospital, Kingston, with multiple lacerations.

Munoz killed in New York

Leonard L. Munoz, 23, of Centermoreland, was killed July 30 in a freak accident in Corning, N.Y.

The son of Rev. Carlos Lee Munoz, of Damascus, Pa., former pastor of the Centermoreland and East Dallas United Methodist Church, Munoz, was attempting to cross engine wires to start his van. The vehicle jumped into gear, dragging him across a parking lot until the van was stopped by a parked vehicle.

Munoz was a student at Penn State University, Lehman campus.

Hearing tests ordinance

A court hearing held Aug. 2 tested, for the first time, a Harveys Lake ordinance that prohibits sleeping in bathhouses.

Allan Burick of Mountaintop was tried before Magistrate Leonard Harvey in Dallas on charges of violating the ordinance. Burick had been under surveillance for two years by members of the Harveys Lake Borough Taxpayers Association.

McDermott pleads guilty

William Mark McDermott, 28, of RD 1, Dallas, pleaded guilty July 26 to charges of public drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The charges were filed against McDermott following a brawl at a Courtdale Firemen's Bazaar July 1.

Others pleading guilty to the same charges were David Ellsworth, 19, of 676 Main St., Edwarsville; Kenneth Moran, 18, of 7 Pugh St., Edwarsville; Gary Moran, 19, of 7 Pugh St., Edwarsville and John Reilly, 19, of 664 Mercer Ave., Kingsdon.

The defendants are required to pay a $50 fine for the two charges plus $43.50 in court costs. They will make restitution to the boroughs of Edwarsville and Courtdale for damages to police cruisers, policemen's uniforms and to the Larksville jail cell where they were detained following the incident.

Cori Gwilliam notes birthday

Cori Gwilliam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gwilliam, celebrated her third birthday July 27. Cori, who was born with an abnormal connection between her esophagus and her trachea, has already undergone seven major operations attempting to correct the defect.

After spending nearly 22 months of her first 24 months of life at Geisinger Medical Center in Danville, Cori went home to Harveys Lake for the first time last October.

Cori is tentatively scheduled for yet another operation at Children's Hospital in Pittsburgh next month.

Accident occurs on Route 415

Alfred L. Hadser was admitted to Nesbitt Memorial Hospital, Kingston, on July 24 after his car was involved in an accident on Route 415.

According to police, Hadser was traveling north on Route 415 when his car collided with a van driven by Daniel Haeefele of RD 4, Dallas.

Hadser's car then went through a set of guardrails and down an embankment. Haeefele was treated at and released from Nesbitt Hospital.

Curtis escapes injury

David J. Curtis, of 21 Skyview Drive, Dallas, escaped injury when the car he was driving struck a tree and came to rest on its roof on July 24. Curtis was traveling north on the Sans Souci Parkway near St. Mary's Road when he lost control of the car.

Wilk pinned by garbage truck

Paul Wilk, 34, of 193 Jackson St., Dallas was injured July 25 when the garbage truck he was working on pinned him against a metal trash bin.

An employee of Robert Phillips Sanitation Company of Larksville, Wilk was replacing the rear axle on the truck when the truck slid off its hydraulic jacks.

After being pinned for nearly a half hour, Wilk was transported to Nesbitt Memorial Hospital in Kingston where he was transferred to the intensive care unit.

Asbestos causes problems

Officials at Gate of Heaven School in Dallas are reported hard at work solving problems caused by asbestos that was used when the building was constructed 33 years ago.

The local Catholic School on Machell Avenue was one of eight area schools where the once commonly used asbestos building materials were discovered as the result of an inspection ordered by the Environmental Protection Agency.

Since the health and safety of the over 300 students attending the elementary school is the prime concern, an announcement of corrective measures being taken is expected prior to the beginning of the school year.

Fire causes $25,000 damage

A fire July 29 caused approximately $25,000 in damage to a home owned by Geraldine Nesbitt on Lake Catalpa Road in Dallas Township. The blaze was battled by firefighters from four communities. The home was reportedly unoccupied.

Guided walks planned at Frances Slocum

Frances Slocum State Park, RD 3, Wyoming, will begin a series of free guided walks through its scenic and historic trails at 2 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 6 and Sunday, Aug. 7.

Guided walks for Park visitors of all ages will also be offered on every following Saturday and Sunday through Labor Day Weekend. Ann Fry, Park Naturalist, will begin each program at the Guided Walk signpost near the boat rental area of Frances Slocum State Park.

Featured walks will include: "Tales of the Woodlands: American Indian Life". Visit a Delaware Indian rock shelter, share Indian stories, and learn which plants and animals were vital to Native Americans of this area.

"Touch The Earth". Hear, smell, touch and see the changes in animal and plantlife along the Park's beautiful Deer Trail.

"Nature's Neighborhoods". Discover the Deer Trail's wild animals and their homes.

Comfortable walking shoes, not sandals, are recommended for the walks. Call Frances Slocum State Park at 696-3525 for information.

Boy Scout camp receives highest rating

Camp Acahela, the local Boy Scout Camp, recently received the highest possible rating during a recent National Standard Camp Inspection.

A National Council Representative of the Boy Scouts of America conducts this annual evaluation with the help of local volunteers. The rigorous examination covers 100 items ranging from health and safety to program quality.

A local staff of 30 Scouts and Scouters provide a high quality program to over 100 Scouts a week.

Program areas include Archery, Boating, Camping, Canoeing, Computers, Ecology, First Aid, Fishing, Hiking, Leatherwork, Lifesaving, Nature Study, Pioneering, Rappelling, Riflery, Swimming and Wilderness Survival.

Camp Acahela, operated by the Penn Mountains Council, Boys Scouts of America is located 15 miles south of Wilkes-Barre near Route 115.

The Scout program is open to all boys who are at least 11 years old or who will be in the sixth grade. For more information about attending Camp Acahela or other Scouting programs, contact the Council Servicenter (823-6158).

The Penn Mountains Council is an active agency of the Wyoming

Valley United Way and Wyoming County United Fund.

SUPERVISORS OF BOTH MONROE AND NOXEN TOWNSHIPS have received additional Liquid Fuels funds from the Wyoming County 1982 liquid fuels allocations from the state. Funds became available after the state auditor general reported to PennDOT that the unencumbered balance in the Wyoming County Liquid Fuels Account for 1982 ($43,846.34) was greater than the county's total receipts during the 1981 funding period. Monroe Township received an additional $2,595.66 while Noxen Township received $1,550.68. The liquid fuels monies received by both townships can be used for road maintenance and repairs.

FRIENDS OF MRS. HELEN CRISPELL of Noxen will be glad to learn she came home on Wednesday from Wilkes-Barre General Hospital where she had been a patient for five days.

FRED ANDERSON, associated with the Volunteers of America, will be the guest speaker at the morning worship service Sunday in St. Luke's Lutheran Church at Noxen in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Jacob Victor, who is on vacation.

JOHN HETTES was a patient in Room 215 at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital, Kingston, at presstime. He was injured in an accident at work, receiving second degree burns of the arm.

CONGRATULATIONS are extended to Lewis and Laura May of Noxen, who observed their wedding anniversary on July 26.

BELATED BIRTHDAY GREETINGS are extended to Rikki Jurista, who celebrated a birthday on Sunday, July 24; Helen Turner, who celebrated her birthday on Friday, and to Shayne Lukasavage, who also celebrated a birthday on Friday.

THE OPEN TENT MEETINGS held last week under auspices of the Noxen Independent Bible Church proved a success and Pastor Jerry Tallent expresses thanks and appreciation to all those, who attended. Evangelist Peter Accardi of Clarks Summit was the guest preacher.

RUSSELL AND JEAN TRAVER AND SON TONY have returned after a trip through the south. On July 16, they attended the wedding of Jean's nephew, Mark Weber to Karen Perkins, at Stone Mountain, Ga., where they spent a week.

DAVE AND LORI VAN ETTEN of Noxen have returned after a week with their parents in Buffalo, N.Y. David, who is the youth pastor at the Noxen Independent Bible Church, chaperoned the youth at the 6 p.m. to midnight skating party, which was sponsored by the Word of Life Fellowship at Bonomo's Rink in Dallas Saturday, July 23. Noxen Independent Bible Church had the largest representation of the several churches, who took part in the skate party.
