A matching bolero jacket featured short bouffant sleeves. To compliment her gown, Mrs. Kingsbury selected a modified pillbox detailed with illusion and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of rubrum lilies and alstroemeria accented with babies breath.

The bride chose her cousin, Mrs. Carol Keefer, and Mrs. Cindy Brin as her bridesmaids. They were attired identically to the matron of honor.

Nicole Kingsbury and Nancy Kingsbury, nieces of the bride, were junior bridesmaids. They were attired in light rosette gowns similar to the attendants. They carried white baskets of alstroemeria, pink mini carnations, heather and babies breath accented by white streamers. In their hair they wore a matching comb of light rosette ribbon and babies breath.

Mark Pesavento, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were William Kingsbury, Jr., brother-in-law of the bride and Christopher Stemmer.

William Kingsbury 3rd, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer.

The mother of the bride chose a floor length rose pink qiana gown accented by a long sleeve matching jacket. She wore a corsage of pink cymbidium orchids. The mother of the bridegroom chose a mauve silk chiffon floor length gown. It featured a matching sash and three quarter length puffed sleeves. She wore a corsage of mauve cymbidium orchids.
