Potentate Tourney champs finish day with 20-under-par

By LEE L. RICHARDS

TOURNAMENT LEFT-OVERS: I was particularly impressed with the numbers posted by Potentate Golf champs, Bill Lawler and Carlyle Robinson.

In the qualifying round, this duo tacked up a record nine-under par 63. In their opening round of match-play, which only went 12 holes, they were five under par. Then the rain came and washed out the remainder of match-play.

Pro Barry Fies had the championship flight play 36 holes of medal on Sunday. All that Robinson and Lawler did was go out shoot a 67-66 for 133. That's 11-under par. Add in the nine under from Friday's round and it's a remarkable 20-under for 54 holes. That's even more astonishing when you consider they never had a bogey!

Meanwhile, Gary Ide and Brian Corbett pulled off one of the biggest upsets in recent memory when they took the measure of defending champs Wally Kiharchik and Ron Pieczynski. The champs had four titles to their credit and an overall match-play mark of 18-2 before going down in the first round.

Another surprise in the opening round was Ed Rome and Bob Nafus bowing to Moe Schonfeld and Dave Sielicki. However, having played with that twosome last year, they can manage their way around the course and both were at the top of their game.

It was nice chatting with former Dallas grid star Ron Kelley, Jr. and his Dad, Ron Sr. Ron told me because of a bum knee he's concentrating on playing golf instead of football. He sure did like to knock people around when performing for the Mountaineers.

During Sunday's round I had the opportunity to play with a gentleman by the name of Dick Jones, who is a member at Fox Hill. I was surprised to learn from his partner Bob Bachman that Mr. Jones was 71 years young. I took one look at his swing on the first tee and knew he could play. I admired his clubs and found out they are 40 years old. They're Spalding Bob Jones models. He had them specially made way back when. Mr. Jones is quite a player!

I'd like to extend a special thanks to many of the women golfers of Irem Temple C.C. for their work and long hours. They helped keep things very professional.

The two holes-in-one on the final day added a lot of excitement around the course. Erv Bluhm says he hit a seven iron on par-three seventh for his first ace. But, Bill Flock's ace on the 17th was the big news, because he won a new car.

CLIPBOARD NOTES: Dallas Coach Ron Rybak

was quite pleased with the turnout for the Mountaineers' football team last week. Members of the team received physicals and will be ready for action next week. Coach Rybak says he's encouraged from the interest during the off-season program.

Lake-Lehman Coach Mark Kirk has been busy this summer handling his gridders during the day and working with roundball mentor Rodger Bearde at night.

"I enjoy being around the youngsters and if they're receptive to what we're attempting to accomplish, I'll give them all of the help I can," says Kirk. He's even more optimistic with all of the enthusiasm demonstrated by the Knights during the summer.
