Around town

A BIG "THANK YOU" to the friendly looking fellow who walks along Pioneer Avenue each morning around nine o'clock. This fellow always has his arms full of trash that has been picked up from the roadside. Thank goodness there are conscientious folks who really care about what the area looks like.

ELLEN CAMPBELL AND MARTHA BARANOWSKI recently presented a session on "Where We Have Been and Where We Are Going" at the Association for Retarded Citizens retreat held at the Kirby Episcopal House, Glenn Summit. Ellen, who lives in Huntsville, is president of ARC of Luzerne County.

club members but for the many spectators as well.

Newberry Country Club members and guests danced to the tones of the "Dimensions" following cocktails and hors d'oeuvres on Saturday evening. A family picnic was enjoyed on Sunday while Monday the "Calcutta" Tennis Tournament provided an exciting end to the season.

BACK MOUNTAIN JAYCEES will sponsor their sixth annual Back Mountain Horse Show at the Lehman Show Grounds on Oct. 2. Ms. Sandra Caldwell, Edgemont, Pa, an AHSA recorded judge in Hunter, Jumper and Hunt Seat Equitation will be judging this year's show.

WARMEST WISHES to the following area couples who were recently married. Beth Alison and Thomas Diachenko; Donna Marie and Louis Paul Butera; Nancy and Joseph Selenski; Jacqueline C. Williams and Thomas P. Zaruta; Sherry Joy Arnow and Jeffrey Lee Davidowitz.

GATE OF HEAVEN CHURCH AND SCHOOL is ready for the experts. This past week, all classroom, office and church furniture was removed to storage so that work can begin on the ceilings. In the meantime, students are attending classes at the Dallas Elementary School while Sunday Masses are being held at Mercy Chapel at College Misericordia. It really gives me a good feeling to see how church parishioners and members of the community pitched in to get things done.

CONGRATULATIONS to Rev. and Mrs. Russell Edmondson, Lehman who celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary August 21. They were married in Windsor Avenue Bible Church, Oceanside, Long Island by the late Rev. Frank Vulture.

The Edmondsons are parents of five children, Warren, Georgia; David, Tunkhannock; Stephen, Fernbrook; Gene, Germany; and Regina, Bible College in Colorado. They have five grandchildren and one foster grandchild.

Ginger Gillis wed recently

Ginger B. Gillis of Dallas and Anthony V. Bologna of Brooklyn, N.Y., were united in marriage on Aug. 25 at Neptune Chapel, Hunlock Creek.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles Sewell, uncle of the bride.

Given in marriage by Richard Tattersall, the bride chose her sister, Mary Black, as her maid of honor. Russell Scotto served as best man.

The bride wore a street-length white dress and carried a bouquet of orchids. The maid of honor wore a matching pink street length dress and also carried orchids.

Following the ceremony, guests were invited to a buffet luncheon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Eva Hoover.

Following a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, the couple is residing in Brooklyn, N.Y., where Mr. Bologna is employed as an iron worker.

MRS. RAY KARALUNAS

Marianne McGuire wed

Miss Marianne McGuire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl McGuire, Krispin Road, Kingston Twp., and Ray Karalunas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Karalunas, Sr., 16 Oliver St., Swoyersville, were married recently in East Dallas United Methodist Church, Rev. Donald Walter, pastor, officiated.

The bride was attired in a formal white gown of English lace and silkened organza with a high neckline of alencon lace trim and a cameo neckline of English net. The neckline was edged with a trim of alencon lace above a full overlay of English net forming a capelet sleeve and falling to a waistline drape. It had a fitted bodice with a natural waistline and a full skirt of English lace bordered with a ruffle of alencon lace. Her chapel train of English lace was detachable.

Her headpiece was a halo of summer flowers featuring white daisies, yellow rosebuds, pink carnations, baby's breath, stephanitis and stasis. She carried a matching cascade of daisies, rosebuds and carnations with white floral accents and white satin streamers.

The bride is a graduate of Dallas High School and attended Delaware Valley Agriculture College at Doylestown and Penn State Lehman campus. She is employed at the Dallas Veterinary Clinic.

Mr. Karalunas is a graduate of Central Catholic High School and attended King's College, Wilkes-Barre, where he received a degree in Business Administration. He is a member of the sales department of Keystone Coca Cola Bottling Co., Pittston Twp.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. Following a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Canada, the couple is now residing at Valley View Trailer Court, Dallas Township.

Elstons note anniversary
