The purpose of the workshop is to assist congregations of all faiths in seeing their role in peacemaking and nuclear disarmament. Church members, members of synagogues, church leaders, elementary and secondary school teachers, Sunday School teachers, college instructors and others are invited to participate in any of the four workshop sessions that will be included.

The cost of the entire workshop is $5, which includes a simple meal and a variety of materials. The evening will conclude with a showing of the film, Gods of Metal. To make reservations, call Robert Witkowski (829-5788) or Peg Ferry (472-3690).

COLLEGE MISERICORDIA and the Osterhout Library will present a 10 week free lecture series on consecutive Mondays beginning Oct. 3.

Museum held summer camp

Laughter and song could be heard at the Museum on Wyoming Avenue in Forty Fort, adding to the pleasant summer morning sounds. Summer Day Camp was in session for five weeks. Games were enjoyed under the large shade trees on the spacious grounds.

If you talk to some of the children who attended you will find they all have favorite events that took place - like the week of Your Community when Corporal Pat Higgins arrived in a State Police Cruiser and blew the siren; or the Swoyersville Volunteer Fire Chief brought the fire engine; or the Week of Holidays Around the World.

Customs of many countries were discovered, such as wooden shoes left to be filled with goodies by Kris Kringle in Germany. Pinatas filled with candy and nuts were broken like the children of Mexico do on Christmas and the decoration of our own tree for Christmas in July.

Girl Scout activities underway

Girl Scout activities are well underway in the Monroe-Northmoreland Townships area with announcement that two Brownie Troops - 436 at Centermoreland and Troop 415 at the Evans Falls Elementary School on Route 390-29 in Monroe Township have reorganized for the new year.

A welcome addition to Girl Scout activities in the area was the organization of a Junior Girl Scout Troop 214 at Beaumont. The new Junior Troop at Beaumont enrolled 10 charter members. The troop will meet Tuesday afternoons from 4:30 to 6 in a special meeting room at Smith's Country Store in Beaumont. Leaders of the Beaumont troop are Mrs. Sally Johnson, assisted by her sister-in-law Mrs. Linda Johnson.

The Brownie Troop 415 at the Evans Falls Elementary School meets after school on Tuesdays. Mrs. Caren White is leader, assisted by Mrs. Jeanette Shonk.

Brownie Troop 436, which meets in the basement of the Centermoreland United Methodist Church on Tuesday afternoons from 5 to 6 registered a total of 18 members at its reorganization session last week. Ten of the 18 Brownies are 'first timers.' Mrs. Emily Considine is leader of the Centermoreland Brownies, assisted by Mrs. Millie Pesta and Mrs. Robin Ransom, whose daughters Jeanine Pesta and Tricia Ransom, are new Brownies.

Weekend retreat being planned

A special weekend is being planned for single young adults at Mercy Center in Dallas, on Oct. 21, 22 and 23. Sr. Dorothy Hagan, RSM, and Rev. Robert Wiseman, CSC, are the coordinators of this autumn program which will look at relationships and belonging.

Sr. Dorothy explained that this is not a retreat or a counseling program but rather is designed to affirm the viability and giftedness of each person. Catholic single young adults, working or in college, both or neither, are invited.

The atmosphere of the weekend is informal. There is time for discussion, for listening, for discovering the potential relationships that participants wish to develop. Input sessions will be facilitated by a team of religious, married people and young adults. Time is allowed for prayer and the sacraments. Comfortable dress is suggested.

The weekend will begin after supper at 7 p.m. Friday, Oct. 21 and will close after lunch on Sunday. The entire cost is $25 per person, of which a $10 deposit should be sent with the registration form. For more information contact Sr. Dorothy Hagan at Mercy Center, Box 370, Dallas, Pa. 18612, phone 717-675-2721 or 675-2131. The deadline for registration is Oct. 15.

Help Line has new service

Essential health care services will be made more accessible to eligible unemployed individuals and their families in Luzerne and Wyoming Counties thanks to an unique "Health Services Referral Network" announced recently.

The announcement was made at a news conference held at the Family Service Association of Wyoming Valley. Help Line, administered by Family Service, will develop and manage the Network, with funding provided by the Rural Health Corporation of N.E. Pennsylvania. The region qualifies for such assistance because of the relatively high unemployment rates of both counties. April unemployment figures were 14.9 percent for Wyoming County and 14.1 percent for Luzerne County.

In a joint statement, Family Service and the Rural Health Corporation pointed out that the purpose of the Network is to be of special aid to those families who have been affected by job cutbacks and who are not able to afford health care services. The overall objective, the statement added, is to identify laid-off workers, organize health care providers, and promote appropriate use of primary health care.

The Health Services Referral Network will reach unemployed persons who are not being assisted by the traditional social service programs; who are ineligible for public third party health care coverage; where no family members are employed; and the family is unable to pay for health care service.

Partners in implementing the Network will be Help Line, a panel of volunteer physicians, and community hospitals.

Individuals and families who feel that they may be eligible for the new program may get complete information by calling Help Line at 829-1341. Residents of Hazleton and Wyoming Counties may call toll free 1-800-432-8007.
