Mark Drasnin selected as Merit Semi-Finalist

Daniel Poorman, Principal of Dallas Senior High School, and Frank Galicki, Assistant Principal, announce the name of Mark Drasnin, a senior at Dallas Senior High School, as being one of 15,000 students selected as a National Merit Semi-Finalist.

Mark qualified as a semi-finalist on the basis of his outstanding performance on the 1982 PSAT test. Over one million students from some 18,000 secondary schools entered the competition last fall by taking the PSAT test in their junior year.

Mark will now fulfill requirements established by the National Merit Scholarship Program in order to advance to finalist standing before receiving consideration for a Merit Scholarship. In 1984 some 5,300 Merit Scholarships will be awarded.

Mark is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Drasnin, 22 Kingswood Drive, Dallas. Mr. Drasnin is employed by Prudential-Bache. Mrs. Drasnin is a teacher at College Misericordia.

Mark has been an excellent student at Dallas Senior High maintaining a 3.7 cumulative average, is ranked in the top fifth of the senior class and is a member of the National Honor Society. He has also received numerous academic awards such as the NEDT Certificate of Achievement in grades 7, 8, 9 and 10 and the English and Science Awards in grades 10 and 11. Mark has participated in soccer for three years, has been a member of the cross-country team for two years as well as track team for three years.

Mark plans to attend college majoring in Physics.

PSU plans course

Penn State-Wilkes-Barre's Office of Continuing Education will present a workshop entitled "Fundamentals of Data Processing for Managers" on Thursday, Sept. 29, 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Sheraton-Crossgates, Wilkes-Barre.

The program is designed for supervisory, managerial and staff personnel who desire practical information on the best way to utilize a computer system. Also, support personnel who are or will use an on-line computer system to handle information will benefit from the program.

David W. Staples, senior consultant of Sarig Business Systems, Inc., workshop leader, will explain data-processing concepts and their use in the business environment. He will cover the fundamentals of computers, hardware, software, terminology, procedures, controls, and systems design.

The fee of $90 covers the cost of instruction, program materials, lunch, and beverage breaks. Participants in this workshop will receive 0.6 C.E.U.s and a certificate. For further information and registration, contact Mrs. Sharon Ward, Penn State-Wilkes-Barre, Lehman, PA 18627, phone 675-2171.

College plans events

College Misericordia joins other organizations throughout the country in celebrating Mercy Week, Sept. 18-24. The College is just one of many institutions sponsored by The Religious Sisters of Mercy, founded in 1831 by Catherine McAuley in Dublin, Ireland.

In celebration of Mercy Week, College Misericordia has scheduled many events to which the public is invited.

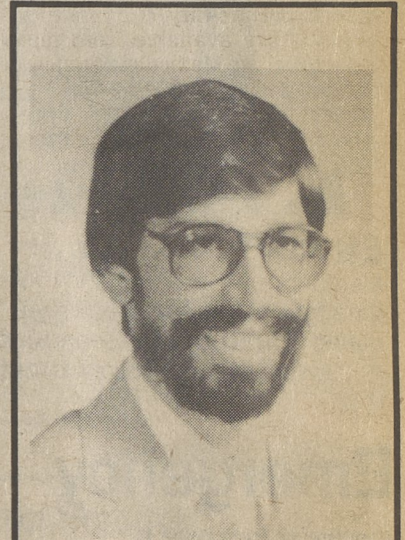

A rock Mass will be held Wednesday, Sept. 21 at 10 p.m. in Merrick Hall.

On Thursday, the Bloodmobile will be at Merrick Hall from 10:15 a.m. to 4:15 p.m. The College Misericordia Nursing Club will sponsor a health fair at the same time.

Saturday, Sept. 24, at 8:30 p.m. the National Players of Catholic University will present "A Midsummer Night's Dream" in Walsh Auditorium.

There is no charge for any of the events listed above, and all are welcome to attend.

Send them BACK TO COLLEGE with a subscription to DALLAS POST

Certainly going away to college can be a rewarding and fun experience, but every student, now and then, becomes a bit lonely for the folks at home. A very welcome visitor on campus will be their hometown paper. They'll enjoy reading about all of the local happenings, scores of local high school games, news of social happenings and much, much more! A college subscription to this newspaper makes a great "going-away gift" and is easy to arrange. Just use the handy form below and we'll speed their first issue on the way so they'll get all the news. If it's a special gift send you, let us know and we'll send them a gift card so they'll know you're really thinking about them.
