Vows pronounced

Sr. Furnari pronounces vows

Sr. Jo Anne Furnari pronounced her perpetual vows as a Sister of Mercy at a Eucharistic celebration on Sept. 17 in Blessed Sacrament Chapel, Mercy Center, Dallas. Sr. Mary Ann Dillon, Provincial Administrator, received her vows.

Sr. Marise Fabie, the outgoing

Director of Sisters in Temporary Commitment was witness at the ceremony. Father Bernard Piston, pastor of Christo Salvador Parish, a Spanish apostolate in York, PA., was the celebrant.

Sr. Furnari is a 1974 graduate of St. Joseph Hospital School of Nursing in Reading, PA., as a Registered Nurse and is currently enrolled in the Baccalaureate Nursing Program at College Misericordia, Dallas. She entered the Sisters of Mercy in April, 1978 and began her novitiate and theological studies in Scranton.

KRISTIN LANG SCHERER Five years old

Kristin Lang Scherer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Scherer of Coolidge Ave. Harding, celebrated her fifth birthday on Sept. 11.

Mrs. Scherer is the former Diane Bartos of West Pittston. Kristin is a student at the Child Development Center, West Pittston.

A party, featuring Blinky the Clown and Uncle Ted and his magic act, marked the occasion.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Bartos of Orange. Paternal Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James M. Scherer of Harding. Paternal Great-grandmother is Mrs. George Johnson of W. Pittston.

Attention, parents!

The Dallas Post invites its readers to submit pictures of their children on the occasion of their birthdays. Birthday pictures of children between the ages of one and 12 will be published free of charge. Parents should include all the necessary information and a telephone number where they can be reached should additional information be needed. Pictures will be kept on file at The Dallas Post and may be picked up following publication.

Valerie Hayden weds John Monick

Miss Valerie Ann Hayden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hayden, of The Follies, Huntsville, was married recently to John C. Monick, Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Monick, 555 Anderson St., Wilkes-Barre and Penn Lake, Bear Creek, in St. Therese's Church, Shavertown.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. Mary Magli, Wilkes-Barre.

Miss Joan Turel was organist and the string music for the ceremony was performed by Mrs. Lillian Supplee, Miss Julie Supplee and Miss Jean Supplee.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a gown of white chiffon which was designed with a portrait neckline, molded bodice and a full skirt detailed with schiffle lace and flowing into a sweep train. The portrait neckline was enhanced with a sweep flounce of schiffle lace and a border of schiffle lace at the hemline.

To compliment her gown, she chose a picture hat of triple-layered white chiffon embroidered with schiffle lace. She carried an arm bouquet of white irises and white fugi mums tied with white satin ribbons.

Miss Maurita Gries was maid of honor. She wore a white two-piece Batiste ensemble. The bodice was designed with a high neck, deep yoke and full Bishop sleeves featuring cluny lace. The tea length, double-tiered skirt was edged with cluny lace. The dress was accented by a royal blue sash.

Her headpiece of white mini carnations with cascades of royal blue baby's breath was designed by Miss Lilly Vilewinski of Miners Mills. She carried an arm bouquet of blue irises and yellow fugi mums tied with white ribbons.

Bridesmaids were Miss Kathy Monick and Mrs. Teri Bardoutsos, sisters of the bridegroom. They were dressed identically to the maid of honor with matching headpieces and bouquets.

The flower girl, Miss Jennifer Jones, wore a dress of Point D'Esprit featuring a high neck with a ruffled lace V-yoke and short sleeves edged with matching lace. The full skirt was complimented with a deep lace ruffle and featured a royal blue sash. She carried a basket of blue irises, yellow daisies and baby's breath. She wore a spray of royal blue baby's breath in her hair.

The mother of the bride was attired in a tea-length gown of ice pink voile over a matching slip. It was designed with a high collar, fitted bodice with embroidered net yoke and elbow length sleeves. It had a bouffant skirt with deep ruffle hemline. She carried a white Cattleya orchid.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a tea-length dress of rainbow voile. It was designed with three-quarter length sleeves, bateau neckline and a straight skirt. It was accented with a matching sash. She wore a white Cattleya orchid.

Daniel Monick served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Joseph Mundanar and Anthony Bardoutsos.

All floral bouquets, boutonnieres and arrangements were done by the mother of the bride.

A cocktail and dinner reception was held immediately following the ceremony at The Barn, Newberry Estates, Dallas. Piano music for the reception was performed by Kenny McGraw, Scranton.

Pre-nuptial festivities included a luncheon shower for the bride given by Mrs. Margie Magli, Mrs. Frances Jones, Mrs. Pat Monick and the bridal attendants.

A cocktail party was given in honor of the bride and bridegroom by Mr. and Mrs. Will F. Maguire at their home in Bear Creek.

The couple was feted at a dinner at the Sheraton Crossgates, Wilkes-Barre, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gries and family, of Dallas.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the parents of the bridegroom at their home.

Following a wedding trip to St. Lucia, West Indies, the couple will reside in Wilkes-Barre.
