Week in review

Man shoots self following chase

Christopher French, 21, of Dallas, shot himself on Sept. 26 in the parking lot of the Prince of Peace Episcopal Church after leading police on a chase through three Back Mountain communities.

Kim Bonawitz, French's former girlfriend, phoned police to inform them of French's threats to kill both her and himself after which the chase began when French drove past Ms. Bonawitz' Franklin Street house.

French drove through two police roadblocks, came close to hitting several vehicles and nearly overturned his car before driving into the church parking lot and turning a Smith and Wesson .357 Magnum pistol on himself.

Garinger sentenced to probation

Wilson R. Garinger, 62, owner of the Dallas Dairy, was sentenced to four years probation and fined $1,000 Sept. 26 on charges he sold a small amount of marijuana to a state trooper.

Garinger, of RD 2, Dallas, was found guilty by a jury in June 1982 on two counts of possession and two counts of delivery of marijuana. He was sentenced to two years probation and fined $500 on each of the delivery charges while a one-year probationary term was imposed on each possession count.

The Dallas man told jurors he had smoked marijuana to alleviate pain from rheumatoid arthritis.

Medical Center will elect officers

The annual election for directors to the board of the Exeter Township Medical Center will be held Oct. 10, at 7:30 p.m. at the Falls Senior Citizen Center, Rt. 92.

One director will be elected to represent each of the five participating townships that comprise the area serviced by the Medical Center. They are: Exeter Township, Wyoming County; Franklin Township, Exeter Township, Luzerne County; Falls Township and Northmoreland Township.

Citizens from these townships are eligible to be a candidate for election and to vote at the meeting of Oct. 10. Walter Mondlak, Northmoreland Township, chairman of the nominating committee can also be contacted at 836-3606 by anyone interested in a nomination.
