IT'S GETTING CLOSE TO WORLD SERIES TIME and baseball buffs over the weekend were touting their choices for victors in the National and American League playoffs, which were scheduled to get underway yesterday in the National League between Los Angeles and the Phillies, and today between the Chicago White Sox and Baltimore Orioles. Here is a brief list of prognostications by area diamond buffs:

Walter Baseski-Phillies and Chicago White Sox in the World Series; Rev. Donald Walter, Dodgers and Orioles; John Zarno, Phillies and White Sox; Don Jones, Phillies and Orioles; Harry Sickler, White Sox and Phillies; Frank Zarnoch, I like the Orioles and Phillies' chances; Ray Kuderka, Should be the Orioles and the Phillies in the World Series; Russ Ockenhouse, Dodgers and Baltimore; Barry Baseski, Phillies and White Sox look good to me; Jack Zarno, White Sox and Phillies; Bill Murray, Baltimore and Phillies; Rich Frederickson, Orioles in the American and Phillies in the National; Stanley Krzanowski, Orioles and Phillies look like winners to me.

The World Series will get underway on Tuesday, Oct. 11 in the American League pennant winner's city.

AFS selling book

The Dallas Chapter of American Field Service is offering for sale the new illustrated history of the Wyoming Valley entitled "The Wyoming Valley an American Portrait". It is the first history of the region written since the 1920's and traces the history from the Indian Wars through the early days of anthracite mining, from the growth of the labor movement to Hurricane Agnes.

The book was written by the chairman of the Department of History at King's College, Dr. Edward F. Hanlon.

Price of the book is $24.95 and would make an exceptional gift idea. For more information please contact: Robert Vail, chairman at 696-2068 or Karen Mertz, 675-2457.

Rotary hears speaker
