Ambulance tour

Children from Wilkes-Barre General Hospital's "Little General" Day Care Center toured the hospital's Emergency Services Department recently in recognition of Emergency Medicine Week. The tour was given by Dr. Johnyne Supulski, medical director of General's Emergency Services Department and John Geracci, R.N., clinical instructor in the hospital's Education Department. The final segment of the tour involved a visit inside a Wilkes-Barre City Ambulance, where Wilkes-Barre paramedics Jude Spellman and Mike Moyer provided information and answered the children's questions. Shown inside a Wilkes-Barre ambulance are, from left, Spellman; Jessica Rennie, Plains; Glenn Aston, Wilkes-Barre; Moyer; Daria Gupko, Hudson; John McNulty, Harveys Lake; Chrissy Costill, Dallas; Laura Kisalis, Wilkes-Barre; Michele Hunt, Old Forge.

New officers

Meadows notes

The residents of The Meadows Apartments enjoyed a bus trip in the Pocono Mountains to view the fall foliage. The trees were at a peak of color and the trip was enjoyed by 66 residents and friends. Luncheon was enjoyed with a buffet at Blueberry Hills. The group also toured the pottery factory.

Members of the committee planning the trip are Clara Troxell, Dorothy Pope, Sarah Williams, Leona Watkins, Ruth Foley, Don Williams and Mildred Cheney.

The residents of The Meadows enjoyed a Halloween Party on Oct. 27 with 72 residents in attendance. A prize was given to each person that was costumed.

Games were played and prizes were awarded. Doughnuts, cider and candy favors, coffee and tea were served.

The committee for the party made decorations and trimmed the recreation room and also trimmed the Nursing Home next door. A four-piece band provided music for dancing.

Clubs meet
