WEEK IN REVIEW

Truck overturns

A truck, driven by Michael Brueckner, of 194 Main St., Dallas, overturned on Manor Road, Dallas, on Nov. 28. Brueckner, who was not seriously injured, was treated at the scene.

Trucksville firefighters responded to the scene of the accident.

Action delayed

Action has been delayed on a request to change the boundaries of three plots of land in Kingston Township. The township supervisors postponed a decision at their meeting Nov. 30 and are now waiting for a document from the county planning commission.

The document, a plot plan, is a map of the property submitted to the county planning commission for review. The commission then sends its recommendation on the matter to the supervisors.

Dale and Dale Co., of Shavertown, has requested permission to realign the boundaries of three lots on Hartford St., Shavertown, where it wants to build houses.

The supervisors cannot act on the request until they receive recommendation from the county.

Money discussed

Dallas Township supervisors, at a public meeting Nov. 30, discussed ways of spending $68,000 in federal revenue sharing funds for 1984.

The funds, which include an estimated $27,000 left over from this year's revenue sharing funds, may be used to purchase 1.3 acres of land for additional municipal parking, a police cruiser and a new grass mower. The remainder of the $68,000 comes from an anticipated $39,000 for 1984 and $2,000 in interest.

The supervisors used approximately $40,000 in revenue sharing funds this year to purchase two trucks.

A final vote on how to spend the funds and on the township's 1984 budget is scheduled for Dec. 20.

Garren arrested

Henry Garren Sr., RD 4, Box 311B, Dallas, was arrested Dec. 1 on charges connected with the sexual abuse of a 16-year-old girl.

Garren was charged with indecent assault and corrupting the morals of a minor, according to a criminal complaint filed with District Justice Leonard Harvey of Dallas.

Garren was arraigned before Harvey and released after posting $15,000 bail. A preliminary hearing is scheduled for Dec. 7 at 1 p.m.

MAGISTRATE REPORT

Hearings postponed

Hearings for Alan Lord who is charged with soliciting a state policeman to blow up his former girlfriend's trailer and shooting at the trailer himself, have been postponed until Dec. 9. Hearings on the two charges before District Magistrates Leonard Harvey and Andrew Barilla were originally scheduled to be heard Nov. 23.

The continuance was granted at the request of Atty. Ettore S. Agalino who is representing Lord. A resident of 89 Parrish Street, Dallas and owner of the Back Mountain Taxi Company, Lord was released from Luzerne County Prison after posting $60,000 bail and is back on the job pending hearings on his case.

Inmates bound

Two inmates at the State Correctional Institute at Chase have been bound over for trial in Luzerne County Court on charges of Indecent Assault, Criminal Conspiracy, Involuntary Deviate Sexual Intercourse and Conspiracy. A Prima Facie case against inmates Nathaniel Owens and William J. Forrest was ruled by District Magistrate Leonard Harvey following a hearing held at the prison.

Another charge of Rape lodged against the pair, who allegedly attacked another prisoner, was dismissed by Magistrate Harvey on the grounds that "rape has to be done to a female, not a male." Arresting officer was State Trooper Donald Taylor of the Wyoming Barracks.

Brothers plead guilty

After spending a few days in Luzerne County Prison, two brothers, Frank and Christopher Yakowski of Bodle Road, Carverton pled guilty to Disorderly Conduct last week. Two other charges of Simple Assault and Resisting Arrest were withdrawn at the hearing held before District Magistrate Earl Gregory who imposed a fine of $200 plus court costs on the Yakowskis.

The brothers had been arrested at the family home after police were called by their mother Louise Yakowski and requested to remove them from the premises, responding was Kingston Township Patrolman Gary Beisel who was assisted in quelling the fight by police officers from Dallas Township and Dallas Borough.

The brothers had originally been arraigned before District Magistrate Leonard Harvey who committed them to Luzerne County Prison in lieu of $5,000 bail set for Frank Yakowski and $1,500 bail set for Christopher Yakowski.

POLICE BLOTTER

Theft being investigated

A theft at the Pioneer Avenue home of Dr. Jay Ochreiter is under investigation by Dallas Township Police Chief Carl Miers. The family was at home when the theft took place Nov. 30 between the hours of 6:30 and 9:15 in the evening.

Entry was made through an open garage door with thieves then entering the adjacent basement of the home. Stolen were an RCA portable TV, two Craftsman tool boxes and several new Craftsman tools still in their original packages.

Theft is reported

The theft of 12 tapes and a tape carrying case from her vehicle has been reported to Dallas Township Police by Tammy Carroll.

Ms. Carroll's 1976 Subaru was parked in the lot at the Castle Inn on Route 415, where the victim resides, when the theft took place.

Cilvik is charged

Under the new Drunken Driving Law, a heavy penalty combining a $1,000 fine and a mandatory 90-day jail sentence may await 20-year-old Robert Cilvik if he is found guilty of charges lodged against him following a two-car accident in Dallas.

The primary charge against Cilvik, which carries the stiff penalty is Driving While Operators License Is Suspended or Revoked For A Previous Conviction of Driving Under the Influence.

Additional charges filed against Cilvik of Box 245, Shawanese by Dallas Township Patrolman Douglas Lamoreaux were Underage Consumption of Alcoholic Beverages and Driving Without Insurance Identification. A charge was also filed against his brother Edward Cilvik of Box 280, Dallas for Permitting An Unlicensed Operator To Drive a Vehicle Owned By Him.

The two-car accident in which Cilvik was involved took place at 8:14 a.m. Nov. 22 as Cilvik was driving his brother's car from the parking lot of the Offset Paperback Company in Fernbrook where he is employed. Police report Cilvik pulled out of the parking lot and struck the side of a vehicle traveling east on Main Road which was operated by Mary C. Crispell, 39, Freeman's Trailer Park, Beaumont.
