Christmas presents

By LEE L. RICHARDS
Sports Columnist

Everyone is busy this time of year making up Christmas shopping lists. Here's just a few items I hope Santa Claus will be kind enough to leave to the following people on Christmas Day:

R O D G E R

BEARDE

Another dozen basketballs for his Lake-Lehman team to use during the off season.

RON RYBAK - To find a QB that has a strong arm and can throw the football accurately next season for the Mountaineers.

NED HARTMAN - More ways to feed football stats into his computer.

ED ROME - A metal driver that won't rattle during his backswing and will hit 290 yards down the middle.

BUCKY O'NEIL - More time to travel to Water Gap Country Club with me this summer.

BOB SAUL - A more sound coaching job for our pal Bill Seranz Speranza.

RAY CECCONI - Here's a guy that has everything, but he could use some new putters since 'blackie' went south.

CLARENCE OZGO - A couple of key hoops in some close games as his Mounts make a run for a roundball title.

BARRY FIES - Some steady rounds of golf in Monday programs this summer.

MARK KIRK - An off season program for his Lake-Lehman gridders that add a few pounds and some overall quickness.

LOU MICHAELS - A full ride for son Ed to Kentucky.

MARV ANTINNES - A bunch of solid football players to prep at Wyoming Sem in the fall so he can field another banner team.

JOHN VOZNAK - The time off to make a couple of football trips with me this fall to Knoxville to see the Vols.

GIB ROMAINE - It's about time the Terps' defensive coordinator received some feelers for a head coaching position.

ROB RUNDLE - More birdies from his partner in the 1984 Potentate's Golf Tournament and the right club selection.

AL BRODA - Another super year for my favorite golf course in the Poconos, Water Gap Country Club.

BOB MUGFORD - A chance to send in a couple of plays for St. Joe when the Nittany Lions play Cincinnati again.

JOHN KENNEDY - A future of good health and more time to get after it on the golf course with the Traveling Players Association.

LARRY SCHULER - A run at the wrestling title for his Big D matmen.

SCOTT BURNSIDE - A return to our Saturday morning golf games and to get away from that jogging.

DAVE DAVIS - A driver that he can control and a putter that won't three-putt.

CHET BLAZICK - Some new moves on his feet so he's not so easy to take down when we wrestle.

BOB VALATKA - A different draw in the Potentate's Golf Tournament so he and his partner can reach the finals.

ROCKY AND RICK BONOMO - A shot at winning Eastern Wrestling League titles as they launch their careers for the Bloomsburg University wrestling team.

RICH GORGONE - A new defensive scheme for his Wilkes Colonels to keep folks out of the endzone this fall.

BOB ROGERS - A left-handed driver that won't slice.

ARCH AUSTIN - A return to good health so he can play golf every day at Irem this summer and a chance for me to take some of his money.

ANDY URBANIC - To be recognized as one of the outstanding assistant coaches. He has been a goodie for the Pitt Panthers.

Best Wishes and a Happy Holiday to all of our readers and sports fans.
