NAVY MACHINIST'S MATE 3RD CLASS DALE L. BOICE, son of Elmer G. and Alberta L. Boice of Route 1, Noxen, recently participated in Operation Urgent Fury on Grenada.

He is a crewmember aboard the amphibious assault ship USS Guam, home ported in Norfolk, Va.

Urgent Fury was a joint operation of the United States and the Organization of Eastern Caribbean States to rescue American citizens, restore order and protect lives and property on Grenada as well as encourage in the formation of a democratic government on the island.

Boice participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills, including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle.

NAVY SEAMAN RECRUIT DANIEL E. HADDLE, son of James W. Haddle of Route 1, Dallas has completed recruit training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

During the eight-week training cycle, trainees studied general military subjects designed to prepare them for further academic and on-the-job training in one of the Navy's 85 basic occupational fields.

PVT. PAMELA A. MITCHELL, daughter of Dorothy A. and Robert G. Mitchell of RD 1, Dallas has completed basic training at Fort Dix, N.J.

During the training, students received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, and Army history and traditions.

She is a 1982 graduate of Dallas Senior High School.

SAUL MENDELSSOHN of Dallas, is the 1983-84 chairperson of the Alumni Admission Committee in Dallas for Franklin and Marshall College.

As chairperson, he is working with other F&M alumni to provide information and advice to talented secondary students who are interested in attending a small, private, coeducational liberal arts college such as Franklin and Marshall.

More than 600 F&M graduates nationally are involved in the effort this year.

F&M, founded in 1787, is well known for preparing students for law, business, medical and graduate schools.

Mendelsohn, who lives at RD 3, Box 298, Dallas is a physician with Renal Associates, 5658 W. Linden St., Wilkes-Barre.

MARINE PFC. KEITH P. AUSTIN, son of Kenneth L. and Merrill R. Austin of Sweet Valley, has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island.

During the 11-week training cycle, he learned the basics of battlefield survival. He was introduced to the typical daily routine that he will experience during his enlistment and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by Marines.

SUSAN LUKSIC, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Luksic, Overbrook Avenue, Dallas is sporting a cast on her foot these days. Susan was walking near the library when the accident occurred, causing her to break her foot. We hear that Susie is getting around pretty well despite her cast. Hope you are feeling better real soon, Susie!

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES DISSINGER FLACK, JR., RD 5, Shavertown, Dallas is sporting a cast on her foot these days. Susan was walking near the library when the accident occurred, causing her to break her foot. We hear that Susie is getting around pretty well despite her cast. Hope you are feeling better real soon, Susie!

Charles' godparents are Mrs. Walter T. Armstrong, Jr., sister of Mrs. Flack and Harold E. Flack II, brother of Mr. Flack.

A small group of family and friends attended the ceremony.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James E. Stine, of Westtown. Mrs. Charles D. Flack, Shavertown and the late Charles D. Flack are paternal grandparents. Paternal great-grandparents are Sen. and Mrs. Harold E. Flack, Dallas.

Charles Dissinger was born Aug. 16 in Nesbitt Memorial Hospital.

FIVE SISTERS OF MERCY recently celebrated 60 years of religious service. Sister Redemta Harwood, Sister M. Maurice Hunstock, Sister M. Mildred Kissalowski, Sister M. Martha Roeman and Sister M. Damian Kilpatrick, all reside at Mercy Center, College Misericordia. During their years in religious life, these sisters served in various capacities at Mercy hospitals in Johnstown, Scranton and Wilkes-Barre; at Mt. Aloysius Junior College, Cresson, College Misericordia and various parochial schools.

THE JUNIOR LEAGUE OF WILKES-BARRE is planning an interesting project which will be ready for viewing in the spring.

The League is featuring a decorator's show house on Sutton Road, Shavertown. The home, with 20 rooms, and an outside area, will be on display from Sunday, April 29 to Sunday, May 20. Each decorated area will have a specific theme with the areas displaying each designers' expertise and creativity. Tickets will be available from any Junior League member. Proceeds will be used for community service.

WINNERS OF THE RECENT PING-PONG TOURNAMENT on Penn State's Wilkes-Barre campus are Mike Bernick, first-place singles winner; Gary Solomon, second-place singles winner. Awards also went to doubles winners Mike Bernick and Rulison Evans, and to second-place winners Michael Boyczak and Doug Solomon.

BEST WISHES TO REBECCA ANNE BREN AND WAYNE PERRAULT who recently announced their engagement. The couple will be married Dec. 30 in St. Therese's

Church, Shavertown. Also congratulations to JANICE DIANE HISLOP AND JAMES P. BREINER who will be married Jan. 14, 1984 in Orange United Methodist Church.

DALLAS CHAPTER AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE still has a few copies of Dr. E.F. Hanlon's book "The Wyoming Valley: An American Portrait." This book gives its readers a good look at our valley's growth. It makes a great Christmas gift, too. Those interested may call Robert Vail, sale chairman at 696-2068.

THE DEAN'S LIST for the fall term at Susquehanna University, Selingsgrove, includes:

DEBBIE BOYLE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Boyle of Mountainview Dr., Lehman, and a graduate of Lake-Lehman High School.

TONI PALL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pall of RD 1, Hunlock Creek, and a graduate of Lake-Lehman High School. She had a perfect 4.0 grade average.

CAN YOU BELIEVE that Christmas Day is almost here? All the hustle, bustle and rushing around seem far away once the day has arrived. To you and your family from the Kingsburys a wish for a very happy holiday season. Merry Christmas to all!
