Medical Oncology Associates of Wyoming Valley announces the association of Dr. Jeff Fremont. Dr. Fremont earned a Bachelors Degree from Temple University, a Masters Degree from the University of Maryland and a Doctorate in Counseling Psychology from Penn State University. In addition to his training in family and individual therapy, he has extensive experience in working with cancer patients and their families. He worked closely with the Hospice group in Center County, PA, and has worked closely with the nursing and ancillary staff of the Cancer Care Unit at the Wilkes-Barre General Hospital. Dr. Fremont has conducted psychological support groups and training sessions for medical personnel working with cancer patients. Medical Oncology Associates currently includes Dr. David Greenwald, a board certified medical oncologist trained in cancer chemotherapy and the medical management of cancer related problems and Dr. Elaine Whitbeck, who is currently on leave of absence due to an illness. Dr. Edward O'Brien, of Hershey Medical Center, will be starting in July. Dr. Fremont's joining the group will enable Medical Oncology Associates to offer a wider variety of specialized services to meet the difficult psychological and emotional problems confronted by cancer patients, spouses and immediate family members on both an individual and group basis. In addition to his association with Medical Oncology Associates, Dr. Fremont will continue his teaching appointment at College Misericordia, Department of Behavioral Science and Social Work, and will be maintaining his private practice counseling individuals and families. Dr. Fremont is associated with the Wilkes-Barre General Hospital. Appointments can be made through Medical Oncology Associates, 35 West Linden Street, Wilkes-Barre, PA. The number is 826-1741. Dr. Fremont resides in Kingston with his wife Judy and their two children, Matthew and Rachel.
