

Local governments reorganize for 1984

PROMOTIONS

Dallas Borough

Jerry Machell, Ken Young, Harold Brobst, and newly-elected councilman William Shaffer were sworn into office by District Magistrate Leonard Harvey at the Dallas Borough Council reorganization meeting Jan. 3. The four councilmen will serve on the all-Republican council with Nancy Eckert, Willard Newberry and William Berti. Each member is paid $30 per month.

The board voted unanimously to appoint Ken Young as chairman for two years while Harold Brobst was also elected to a two-year term as vice chairman.

Ralph Garris was reappointed secretary at an annual salary of $1,700 and was also reappointed as borough superintendent at an annual salary of $17,240.

Police Chief Ed Lyons was reappointed for two years at a salary of $17,650 while the three full-time police officers received a $750 across the board salary increase.

Salaries for the four road department employees and the nine part-time police officers were to be negotiated at a borough committee meeting planned for Jan. 10.

will receive a five percent pay increase, raising their salaries from $15,739 to $16,634.

The eight part-time patrolmen received a 25 cents per hour increase to $5.50 per hour while the road department truck drivers will receive $7.35 per hour, a five percent increase from 1983.

Kingston Township

Daniel Wisniewski, Herbert Hill, and Willard Piatt, three incumbent supervisors in Kingston Township, were sworn into office Jan. 3 by Notary Public Lillian Price. The three join Edward Price and Ambrose Gavigan, who were not up for election in November.

Wisniewski was elected chairman of the all-Republican board and Price will serve as vice-chairman. Supervisors are paid $25 per meeting.

The board appointed Mark Kunkle as township manager at a salary of $20,100; Robert Chamberlain as roadmaster at a salary of $19,100; and Paul Sabol as chief of police at a salary of $19,100. The salaries are an increase of $1,100 over 1983.

The five full-time road department employees will be paid from $14,240 to $19,100, a 52 cents per hour increase while the four full-time police officers received a $1,100 salary increase, providing salaries that range from $12,600 to $19,100.

Part-time patrolmen will be paid $5.60 per hour, a 35 cents per hour increase.

Lehman Township

Al Clewell joined Chairman Lester Litts Jr. and Wesley Dickson as he was sworn in Jan. 3 as a member of the Lehman Township Board of Supervisors. Clewell was sworn in to the all-Democratic board by the chairman.

Joseph Kaller was appointed to serve on the zoning hearing board and will serve with Harold Zuckerberg and Art Garris.

Al Sibererini was reappointed to the planning commission which also includes Larry Van Why, Ed Tiller, Rich DePue and Ralph Litts.

Jackson Township

Henry Zbiek was reappointed secretary-treasurer of the Jackson Township Board of Supervisors at a reorganization meeting held Jan. 3.

The board also voted a five percent pay increase for all township employees. The board also granted the township fire department and the ambulance service $200 each.

Carl Austin was reappointed chairman and Edward Havrilla was reappointed secretary. The board also voted that the township supervisors' pay remain at $25 per meeting and $25 per road inspection. Roads are inspected twice a year by the supervisors.

The next meeting of the supervisors will be held Monday, Feb. 6, at 7:30 p.m. at the township fire hall.

Franklin Township

Newly elected supervisor Ernest Gay was appointed chairman of the Franklin Township board of supervisors during the board's reorganization meeting held Jan. 3. William Murray, the other newly elected member of the all-Republican board, was appointed vice chairman and roadmaster.

The supervisors voted to cut the roadmaster's wages from $7.95 per hour to $5.50 per hour. They also appointed supervisors Willard Race and David Rought as part-time road laborers at $5.00 per hour.

Gay was appointed as a road laborer-operator with his salary to be set by the township auditors.

The supervisors voted against giving part-time police chief Richard Bartholomew a $234 pay increase included in the 1984 budget. Bartholomew is paid $3,900.

Sophia Lucidi was appointed the new secretary at $125 per month.

Harveys Lake

Five newly elected members of the Harveys Lake Borough Council were administered the oath of office Jan. 3 by Luzerne County Court Judge Arthur Dalessandro. They are Robert Maximovicz, Ronald Edwards Jr., Arnold West, John Yenason, and David Forster.

The new council members joined incumbents Daniel Blaine Jr. and William Gallagher on the all-Democratic board.

The Council elected Daniel Blaine Jr. as president and Ronald Edwards as vice president at a reorganizational meeting Jan. 4.

Other appointments made by council were Thomas O'Connor as solicitor, Miriam Mitchell as secretary, George Maurer as member of the Municipal Authority Board, John Brokenshire as borough auditor and accountant and Ed Conologue as zoning officer and voting inspector. All will be employed by the borough at the same salaries as in 1983.

Council will meet the third Tuesday of each month at 8 p.m. in the municipal building.

JAMES J. MCGUIRE

JOHN G. NACKLEY

J. McGuire named new president

James J. McGuire has been named President of a newly formed company, Diamond Industrial Marketing Company. Located in Wyoming, the firm's main thrust will be to develop specialized services in marketing and telemarketing for the industrial community.

It's time for Rover to get a new license

Dog owners are reminded that the new 1984 dog licenses are now on sale at the County Treasurer's Office.

Act 225, the state dog law provides that all dogs over six months of age must be licensed on or before January 1 of each year. Those dog owners who fail to obtain a current license are subject to fines up to $300 plus court costs for first offenders.

The law provides for licensing fees of $5.00 for productive dogs and $3.00 for spayed or neutered animals. Senior citizens are entitled to a reduced fee of $2.75 and $1.75 respectively. Owners of guide dogs, hearing dogs, or other aid dogs are not subject to license fees but their animals must be licensed.

According to Gene Dziak, Regional Dog Warden Supervisor of the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture in Tunkhannock, all dog owners will give sufficient time to obtain a 1984 license before checks are conducted in each county and citations issued by regional wardens from the Bureau of Dog Law Enforcement.

Licenses may also be purchased by obtaining a blank application form which can be found at the offices of many magistrates, police departments, pet stores, SPCA's or town halls. Completed forms can then be forwarded to the County Treasurer with remittance and an enclosed, stamped, self-addressed envelope for return of the license tag.
