Michael Elias, instructor, gave the demonstration.

Those enjoying the visit were Rebecca Lathrop, Shannon Klemmuns, Heather Brown, Diana Emery, Kiera Radginski, Jennifer Cole, Tammy Bardo, Regan Bombick, Nicole Sutton, Barbara Campbell, Johanna Miller, Jennifer Van Fleet, Jennifer Lubinski, Jessica Evans, Ellen Campbell, troop leader and Cynthia Evans, troop leader.

DALLAS JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL was recently awarded second-place honors by the Economic Development Council of Northeastern Pennsylvania in its Pocono Northeast Awards for innovative educational programs. Dallas Junior High School Drug and Alcohol curriculum, "Here's Looking at You, Too" won the award.

"Here's Looking at You, Too" is a program designed to help students deal with peer pressure. This program, which is also a part of the elementary curriculum, is designed to build a child's self esteem.

Congratulations to the school district for instituting this essential program for our children.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Spaciano, 91 Shagbark Dr., Shavertown, who celebrated their 64th wedding anniversary last week.

The Spacianos were married Jan. 7, 1920 in Holy Rosary Church, Wilkes-Barre by the late Rev. Luigi Cecere. Helen Zapp, Kingston and John Bucoli, Pittsburgh were attendants.

Mrs. Spaciano is the former Mary Madio, daughter of the late Ann and Luigi Madio, Geneva, N.Y.

Mr. Spaciano was born in Rome, Italy, son of the late Josephine and Vincent Spaciano.

Mrs. Spaciano is retired from Natona Mills while Mr. Spaciano is retired from Wilkes-Barre Transit Company.

The Spacianos are parents of six children, Louis and Victor, Trucksville; Vincent, Levittown; Mrs. Peter Skameritz, Berwick; Anna, Harrisburg; Mrs. John Kucavich, Conn., deceased. They have 10 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

A family dinner was held to celebrate the happy occasion.

THE WORLD-RENOWNED ALARD QUARTET of Pa. State University Performed an evening of chamber music in Hayfield House on the Penn State Lehman campus. The former mansion, festively decorated, provided the backdrop for the matchless performance of quartets of Beethoven and Saint Saens and an Italian serenade by Hugo Wolff. Members of the Alard Quartet are cellist Leonard Feldman, violinist Raymond Page, violinists Donald Hopkins and Joanne Zagst. The quartet has been performing together for 27 years.

The Alard is one of a distinguished line of quartets to emerge from the Juliard School of Music. Since 1962 it has been Quartet-in-Residence at Penn State. With its repertoire unsurpassed in the field of chamber music, the Alard has been cited as one of the outstanding quartets of the century.

BEST OF LUCK to the following local couples who have announced their engagements: Dr. Maria Kathleen McGrane and Dr. Jay A. Ochreiter; Carole Jean Rees and Kevin G. Patton; Mary Frances Spencer and Matthew Fiske.
