

POLICE BLOTTER

Vehicles entered

Three vehicles belonging to workers at the Charmin Paper Company were broken into last week while parked along Hillside Road in Trucksville.

Albert J. Koch of Plymouth reported to Kingston Township Police, who are investigating the incident, that $750 in goods including a tool box and a spare tire were stolen from his vehicle.

Charles Janoski of Plymouth estimated $250 in damages when the windows of his locked vehicle were smashed.

Thomas Skudalski, Connor Street, Pringle reported the theft of $50 worth of tapes from his vehicle.

Lenahan charged

Edward Lenahan, 70, of West Mt. Airy Road, Shavertown has been charged with Driving Under the Influence. His arrest by Kingston Township Patrolman Walter Davis followed an accident at the intersection of Carverton Road and Holly Street, Trucksville.

A hearing for Lenahan scheduled last week before District Magistrate Earl Gregory was postponed due to inclement weather. Lenahan will be represented in Magisterial Court January 26 by Atty. Edward Geist.

Cilvik not guilty

Robert Cilvik, 20, of Box 245 Shawanese was found not guilty of Driving Under Suspension while under conviction of Driving Under The Influence in a hearing last week before District Magistrate Earl Gregory.

Cilvik, who was represented by Atty. Joseph Yeager, was found not guilty on grounds of township non-conformance to Vehicle Code Sections 6102 and 6109.

Cilvik, had been charged by Dalls Township Police following an accident on Main Road outside the parking lot of Offset Paperback Co. where he is employed.

He pleaded guilty to a charge of Underage Consumption of Alcoholic Beverages and was fined $50 and costs.

A previous charge against his brother Edward Cilvik for Permitting An Unlicensed Driver to Operate His Vehicle was never filed. Dallas Township Police report that "after further investigation it was determined he was not aware that his brother's permit was suspended so no charge was filed."

Dan Hudzik appointed to school board

Daniel Hudzik, of RD 1 Sweet Valley, was recently sworn in as the newest member of the Lake-Lehman School District. Hudzik fills a vacancy created by the death of Director Vincent Marchakitus.

Hudzik, who is employed as an assistant supervisor for Owens-Illinois Co. in Pittston, was sworn in by District Justice Earl Gregory. He was appointed to the board on Jan. 18 by the nine judges of the Luzerne County Court.

Kenneth Williams, a former director, temporarily filled the position during November. A vote last month over whether to appoint Williams full-time ended in a 4-4 tie, thus necessitating the judges' decision.

Scholarship applications now available
