

Employees honored

Two employees of the Dallas Post Office were recently presented with a special achievement award. The award is given to employees who perform in a manner that exceeds the usual work requirements for a sustained period of time. Shown here during the presentation are, from left, Ray Ceconi, superintendent; Dan Jones, carrier, award recipient; Charles Innamorati, clerk, award recipient; and Thomas Bly, postmaster. Jones and Innamorati have served at the Dallas Post Office for 12 years.
