District sponsors Seedling Sale

The Luzerne County Conservation District is now sponsoring their Annual Seedling Sale. According to Ruth Ann Balla, Manager of the Conservation District, the project is held to give landowners a chance to purchase seedlings at a reasonable cost. Seedlings are primarily three years old and range in size from six to 24 inches. There are no restrictions as to the number of trees purchased or where they are planted.

For 1984, seedling varieties include four evergreens and one hardwood. Colorado Blue Spruce seedlings have a stiff silvery-blue to bluish green needles that are one inch long. It is a handsome ornamental specimen in a single planting or as a dense colorful screen.

The Luzerne County Conservation District is taking orders until March 23. Seedlings are sold in bundles of 10. Delivery will be on Saturday, April 21, at Pittston, Shavertown, Nanticoke and Hazleton. For ordering information contact the Luzerne County Conservation District, P.O. Box 148, 71 North Market Street, Nanticoke, Pa. 18634 or call 735-8700.

Workers strike

Twenty-two unionized employees of the Banks Equipment Co. in Jackson Township went on strike Feb. 8 in a contract dispute. Members of the United Steelworkers of America Local 14458 picketed in front of the American Asphalt Paving Co. plant on Chase Road. Union members, whose three-year contract expired at midnight Feb. 8, are seeking a wage increase and improvements in the company's medical plan. This is the first strike in 10 of 12 years at the plant. Union workers plan to maintain two-man pickets at the Chase Road plant for eight hours each day.

Ewing injured

Robert Ewing of Briarcrest Drive, Lehman Township, was injured Jan. 31 by a hit and run driver as he crossed Route 415. Ewing, who was taken to Wilkes-Barre General Hospital, was reportedly struck by a light colored, 1977 or 1978 mid or full size Chevrolet. The car was last seen heading north toward Harveys Lake.

Trial date set

The trial of Dennis Abromavage, 34, of 84 Columbus Ave., Pittston, will open March 5 in Luzerne County Courthouse. Abromavage, is charged with eight counts of involuntary manslaughter, recklessly endangering another person, aggravated assault and reckless operation of a watercraft. The charges are in connection with a fatal boating mishap that occurred June 18, 1983 at Harveys Lake.

Home robbed

Two people were tied up in a Lake Township home by an armed robber on Feb. 8. The robber then stole two rifles and $1,000 in cash. The gunman entered the home of John Adams of Loyallville and then fled the scene in a white 1970 or 1976 Ford four-door automobile.

Dies in accident

Catherine Stucky, 70, of Box 178, Tunkhannock, was pronounced dead on arrival at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital, Kingston, on Feb. 3 following a one-vehicle accident on Route 309 in Kunkle. The car in which she was riding, was driven by her husband, Joseph, 69, and skidded on an icy road, went out of control and slammed into several guardrails.

Death was attributed to a crushed chest and multiple traumatic injuries. Mr. Stucky was admitted to Nesbitt Memorial Hospital and listed in stable condition.

Woman injured

Evelyn J. Truesdell, 38, of RD 1, Noxen, was seriously injured on Feb. 3 when the vehicle she was driving slid into the front of a vehicle driven by James Meehwee, 29, of 300 Bowers St., Berwick. The accident occurred on icy roads on Route 29 near Route 11 in Jackson Township. Meehwee was injured, however, Ms. Truesdell was admitted to Wilkes-Barre General Hospital and listed in serious condition.
