grade; David Wojciechowski, fourth grade; and Brian Jezuit, third grade. Standing, Rev. William F. Cusick, pastor; Mrs. Diane Wojciechowski; Sister Carol Conrad; Sister Elizabeth Gaynor; and Sister Davida Morgan, principal.

LCCC's Eleanor Miller attends conference

Eleanor Miller, assistant to the dean of academic services at Luzerne County Community College, was among the nearly 2,000 teachers and administrators who gathered in Philadelphia recently to attend the 1983 National Adult Education Conference.

Participants came from all types of educational settings including schools, colleges, the military, business and government, and had the opportunity to choose from among 225 concurrent sessions planned by the sponsors, the American Association for Adult and Continuing Education (AAACE), and the host affiliate, The Pennsylvania Association for Adult Continuing Education (PAAAF).

Topics discussed included basic literacy, computer literacy, professional development, community-based education and bilingual services.

Miller, a resident of Shavertown, was a member of the program planning committee for the conference.
