Robin Evans to wed

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Evans of 47 Hilldonia Avenue, Dallas, announce the engagement of their daughter, Robin, to Kevin L. Cleveland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cleveland of Evans Falls.

Ms. Evans is a graduate of Dallas High School and is presently attending Empire Beauty School of Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. Cleveland is a graduate of Tunkhannock Area High School and is employed at InterMetro Industries Corporation of Wilkes-Barre.

The wedding will be celebrated on Saturday, May 19 at Shavertown United Methodist Church.

Cleary is chairman

Mary Ann Cleary of Dallas has accepted the chairmanship of National Mental Retardation Month which will be observed during the month of March in Luzerne County and throughout the nation.

The Association for Retarded Citizens of Luzerne County a member of the ARC of Pennsylvania, and the ARC of the United States will conduct a campaign to inform the community about people with mental retardation and to accept these individuals within their local communities.

Mrs. Cleary has announced that during this observance special events will be held such as an essay contest for elementary and high school students, a banner raising on Public Square, displays, distribution of pamphlets to physicians and professionals in the field of mental retardation and workshops.

On Friday and Saturday, March 9 and 10, the Knights of Columbus, Assumpta Council 3987 will sponsor a Variety Show at Bishop O'Reilly School and citizens with Mental Retardation will be invited as their guests.

Anyone interested in assisting with any of these events may call the Association for Retarded Citizens office, 71 N. Franklin St., Wilkes-Barre or Mary Ann Cleary.

Mrs. Cleary resides with her husband, Jack, and their five children. She is currently a member of the ARC Board of Directors and is active in their "Parent to Parent Support Group."
