Bearde scores 1,000th

Seton proves too much for Knights

The Lake-Lehman boys' basketball team had four players in double figures, but the Eagles of Seton Catholic were too much for the Back Mountain boys to handle and the Knights were defeated, 53-46, Friday night.

Seton took a 16-12 lead at the end of the opening period and increased that lead to 32-18 at the half.

Bill Bearde led the Black Knights with 14 points, Scott Drugotch added 12 and Ray Iwanowski and Paul Jones each scored 10 points in the losing cause.

LEHMAN 50, DALLAS 47
The Lake-Lehman girls' basketball team defeated their Back Mountain rivals, Dallas, by a mere three points, 50-47 on Tuesday.

The final 30 seconds saw Lehman's Kim Fey and Ronda Hudzik making four free throws to give the Lady Knights the edge.

Dallas tied the score at 46-all with just 30 seconds remaining, after battling back from a 39-32 deficit at the end of three periods.

Fey, who finished the game with 12 points, was successful on two attempts from the charity line to put the Lehman girls up. Dallas then missed the front end of a one-and-one. Hudzik then made two foul shots to ice the victory.

The Dallas girls' basketball team was scheduled to be at Crestwood last night and will host West Side Tech on Feb. 23 in the final conference game of the season.

The Lake-Lehman girls' basketball team was scheduled to conclude conference slate yesterday at home against Meyers.
