The circus comes to town!

BY WALLY KOCHER

Attention ladies and gentlemen! Get ready for the greatest show on earth! The circus has come to town.

That's right. The Irem Temple Shrine Circus is proud to announce hat for the 35th consecutive year, they will once again be bringing the wholesome entertainment of the circus, to the area, that thousands of people from all over Northeastern Pennsylvania have come to expect.

The show, which is entitled "Circus Odyssey" and is produced by Ed Migley's Stardust Productions, has several new and exciting features. According to Mr. Donald Britt, Potentate for the circus, two fo these new acts are both aerial acts, which will be performed simultaneously.

"We've never had that before," said Britt. "It should be interesting and exciting.

'Of course there will be numerous animal acts consisting of tigers, bears, chimps, dogs and others." He also added, "Mr. Migley has promised us the best show we've ever had."

The uniformed units of the Irem Temple sponsor the circus. These units consist of approximately 675 men that take part in various activities such as the clown unit, arab patrol, jazz and oriental bands, stage crafters and other units.

According to William Turnbaugh, General Co-chairman ffor the circus, before the circus arrives, all of the men help get the armory in

"We have our own bleachers that we set up. Also, we get the concession stands ready and do any last minute wiring that's needed,"

"We also help out during the circus. We conduct the concession stands, parking and the ushering." Portions of the funds raised from the event go to crippled chidlren's hospitals and burn centers for children, Mr. Britt explained.

ferent hospitals and three burn centers. The clsoest hospital is in Philadelphia, and the closest burn center is in Boston. Massachusetts."

Approximately 25,000 people are guests Shriners during their evemt. These groups include both the physically and mentally handicapped, the elderly, boys scouts, girls scouts and all types of youth groups. According to Mr. Turnbaugh, this has been done in the past and has always been well received.

The circus will be held from Monday, March 26 to Sunday, April 1. Showtimes will be: Monday, 2:15 and 7:45 p.m.; Tuesday through Friday, 1:45 and 7:45 p.m.; Saturday, 9:45 a.m., 1:45 and 7:45 p.m.; and Sunday, 1:30 and 5:30

Tickets may be obtained at the Irem Temple Box Office, Boscov's, Simon's Fabricland, J.C. Penney's, or the Circus Box Office at the 109th Armory in Kingston.

Ross Township lists numbers

In a survey of Back Mountain police departments that appeared in the March 21 issue of The Dallas Post, it was incorrectly reported that residents of Ross Township should contact the Tunkhannock State Police in the event of an emergency. Chief Joseph Skibitsky has brought it to our attention that Ross Township residents should contact the Shickshinny State Police at 542-4117. Also, if there is no answer at the Ross Township Police telephone number, residents may also contact the Luzerne County Communications Center at 675-5259. This number is listed directly below the Ross Township Police phone number in the Dallas Phone Book.

At Harveys Lake

Rep. Hasay calls for help in improvement projects

As a result of a meeting with Harveys Lake Mayor Frank Picci and members of the Harveys Lake Protective Association, Rep. George C. Hasay is asking state officials for assistance in a number of improvement projects.

In a letter to Thomas J. Collins, Penn DOT district engineer, Hasay said that members of the association are requesting department assistance in the following areas: Construction of a bike pathway along the edge of the road around the lake; - Installation of a traffic counter during mid-July on both sides of the lake to determine the use of the area around the lake for a possible reclassification;

around the lake with a better grade construction material than stone and chips;

 The posting of additional "No Littering" signs;

- Improvements to the inlet bridge which is in need of face

Removal of old guardrails.

Hasay noted that he had requested removal of the guardrail last year, but no action was taken by PennDOT.

"I'm very upset that these deteriorating guardrails were not yet removed," he said.

Hasay also asked Ralph W. Abele, executive director of the Pennsylvania Fish Commission, to reschedule a meeting with borough officials to discuss the installation of bathrooms and garbage containers at public access areas around

"Essentially, the citizens of Harveys Lake are asking the state for assistance in making these low-cost improvements," Hasay said. "This is one of the largest and most beautiful lakes in Pennsylvania and I urge the state to act as quickly as

Program receives approval

Dr. Sheila Pringle, chairman of College Misericordia's division of nursing, recently announced that the baccalaureate nursing program received its second, eight-year accreditation from the National League of Nursing.

The eight-year period is the maximum time allowed for a school to be accredited and is an achievement most colleges strive to Accreditation is a voluntary process which represents approval by nursing peers across the county. Programs that are accredited meett criteria deemed necessary and desirable by nursing educators from public, privatte and religious institutions.

Misericordia's bachelor of science in nursing program has maintained accreditation since

The nursing program has been part of the college's curriculum for nearly 40 years. Students are prepared to provide health care services to individuals, families and community groups upon completion. Clinical courses begin in the sophomore year, permitting students to gain more clinical experience.

An elderly woman was seen hurdling a snow pile last week to avoid being splashed by a passing vehicle.

Believe it!

A Kingston Township man insisted that his road be plowed immediately during last week's snowstorm because his dog was illand he had to be able to get to the vet at any given time.
