

Jay-C-Ettes sponsor 'Fashions in Bloom'

"Fashions in Bloom," a fashion show presented by the Back Mountain Jay-C-Ettes, was held March 21 at the Irem Temple Country Club. Shown in the top left photo is Debbie Bayer, one of the Jay-C-Ette models as she is seen in a three-tier skirt with a high neck. The top center photo depicts one of the lighter moments of the evening as "Big Bird" (Debbie Brewer) offers some words of encouragement to Jay-C-Ette children Sarah Tupper, left, and Seth LaJeunesse.

Charlie Kishbaugh, a Jay-Cee model, is shown in the top right photo while Tara Tupper, one of the Jay-C-Ette children, stands innocently in the lower left photo. (Photos by George Poynton)

Members of the Irem Temple Uniform Units participated in the St. Patrick's Day Parade in downtown Scranton. Shown here in the photo at left is one of the leaders of the Irem String Band while the gigantic replica of the Shrine Fez is shown in the right photo. (Photos by Bill Savage)

Stargell named to Arts Council

Gov. Dick Thornburgh announced recently the nomination of former Pittsburgh Pirate team captain Willie Stargell, of Pittsburgh to the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts. Stargell, 43, retired in 1982 following a remarkable 20-year playing career with the Pirates. Since his retirement, he has been involved in a number of projects, including narration of selected works of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. in a national tour with the Rochester (New York) Philharmonic in early 1983.

Upon Senate confirmation, Stargell will serve until July 1986, replacing Cathryn L. Irvis, whose term expired and was not eligible for reappointment.

The Pennsylvania Council on the Arts is the state agency responsible for the encouragement and development of the arts in the Commonwealth. The council, through its grants programs, support projects initiated by non-profit art groups, institutions and artists.

Since 1979, the state appropriation for the arts council has increased from $2.6 million to $4.8 million in fiscal year 1983-84.

'Parade of Quartets' concert scheduled

The 32nd Annual "Parade of Quartets" Concert of the Wilkes-Barre Chapter, Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America (SPEBSQSA) will be presented this weekend at Meyers High School, Wilkes-Barre, March 30 and 31. Curtain time each evening will be 8 p.m.

Appearing on the program will be "The Tag Masters" well-known quartet of the Wilkes-Barre SPEBSQSA Chapter. Members are Joseph Fry of Trucksville; tenor-Phillip Brown from Shavertown; Baritone, Raymond Patsko, Wilkes-Barre; and Bass, Robert Kressly, Wilkes-Barre.

Limited ticket sales will be available at the door each evening, according to Ticket Chairman Robert Carey, Dallas, who encouraged advance reservations by calling chapter members, and or calling the parish rectory of St.

Mary's Greek Rite Catholic Church, 321 Chestnut Ave., Kingston, rehearsal site of the local chorus.

Subscribe To
The Post
675-5211

Dr. Carboni establishes private practice here

DR. VINCENT CARBONI

Dr. Vincent A. Carboni has announced the establishment of his private practice of Pediatrics-Adolescent Medicine and Allergy with children and adult at the recently opened Mercy Medical Offices, Lake Street, Dallas. Support facilities at this location include x-ray, laboratory and physical therapy thus eliminating the need for his patients to travel to the city for testing and treatment.

Originally from Trenton, New Jersey, Dr. Carboni received his Bachelors Degree from Drexel Philadelphia, and his M.D. from the University of Medicine of New Jersey. He completed a three year Residency Program at Monmouth Medical Center, Long Branch, New Jersey and is Board Certified in Pediatrics. Further training includes a two year Fellowship in Allergy and Immunology at St. Christopher's Hospital for Children, Philadelphia, an affiliate of Temple University. He is Board Eligible in Allergy-Immunology as well.

Dr. Carboni is a member of several professional organizations which include: the Pennsylvania Medical Society, Luzerne County Medical Society, American Academy of Pediatrics and the American Academy of Allergy and Clinical Immunology. He is on the staff of Mercy Hospital, Wilkes-Barre, and appointments can be made through his office by dialing 675-8289 weekday afternoons.

He and his wife, Elaine, reside in Dallas with their daughter Theresa and a new arrival expected in July. Dr. Carboni has stated that he is looking forward to practicing medicine in Dallas and becoming part of the community. He has extended an invitation to any civic organization to give a talk in either field of medicine. He recently hosted a group of pre-schoolers through the facilities at Dallas in an effort to reduce the anxiety of going to the doctors, and encourages other Day Care groups to arrange a visit.

CTE names new director

Steven C. Friedman has joined Commonwealth Telephone Enterprises, Inc. (CTE) as director of employee relations. His responsibilities include labor relations, salary administration, performance evaluation, employee communications and CTE's Affirmative Action program.

Friedman was vice president, human resources, for a division of Consolidated Foods, Chicago. Prior to that he was manager, industrial relations, Amerace Corporation; director of employee and labor relations for the Village of Oak Park; personnel manager, Armac Enterprises, and placement director, Oakton Community College.

A U.S. Navy veteran, Friedman holds an MBA from Lake Forest School of Management and a BA in industrial psychology from the University of Illinois.

His wife, Sharon, and his family will relate to the Wyoming Valley area soon.

STEVEN FRIEDMAN

Griffin presents seminar

William Griffin, of Dallas, vice president of Administration for Custom Management Corporation (CMC) has been invited to present his "Situational Leadership" seminar at a session of the New England Hospital Assembly currently being held in Boston, Massachusetts.

Griffin's participation in this year's forum represents the third management workshop which he has conducted as part of the Assembly's ongoing educational series.

"Situational Leadership" is designed to provide individuals with the ability to effectively develop their leadership styles in improving morale, performance and productivity. General topics of discussion focus on the identification of the individual's basic style of leadership, diagnosing the leadership needs of others, and the practice of various management techniques.

Griffin holds an undergraduate degree in Business Administration from Oglethorpe University in Atlanta, GA, and a MBA with distinction from Babson College in Wellesley, Ma.

In addition to his membership in the New England Hospital Assembly, Griffin is also affiliated with a number of professional management organizations, including the American Society for Training and Development and the National Restaurant Association.

WILLIAM GRIFFIN

As vice president of Administration for Custom, his duties include labor relations, contract administration, human resource development, and corporate support services.

Custom Management Corporation is a professional contract management company which performs a wide range of institutional, health care, educational, business, restaurant and environmental services with more than 500 accounts nationwide.

A native of the new England area, Griffin and his wife Mary reside with their three children in Dallas.

Booster Club plans banquet

The Booster Club of Holy Trinity School, Swoyersville met recently with Joseph Lipinski presiding.

Plans are being made for the second annual Sports Banquet scheduled for April 1 in the school auditorium at 5 p.m. Basketball players and cheerleaders involved in the sports program will be guests. Eighth grade students will be honored and will receive their trophy awards at this affair.

Family and friends are invited to attend. Reservations may be made with Elaine Lipinski. A parent is requested to accompany each child attending the banquet.

Plans are being formulated for a Father-Son basketball game and a Mother-Daughter basketball game to be held in the school gymnasium.

A nominating committee for election of new officers for the 1984-85 basketball season was announced. The committee consists of John Uter, Don and Mary Wilce, Jeannie Miller, Arlene Adamchak and Richard Nemetz.

Father Joseph Ziobro is moderator of the school's Booster Club. Monsignor Michael C. Polcha is pastor at Holy Trinity Church.

Pastor Fred Clifford delivers talk

Pastor Fred Clifford, former pastor of the Community Church of Dallas, will return to the church to present his current work with Bible Basics International on SUNDAY, April 1.

Bible Basics International is an organization founded to write Biblical scriptures in an easy to translate, easy to understand style. Its readily translatable materials are bridging a gap for translators, radio broadcasters, missionaries, and listeners in far away and often unheard of places.

Pastor Clifford is the Southeastern Representative for Bible Basics International and will speak at the 11 a.m. and 6 p.m. services on April 1.