This little guy was a traffic stopper one evening last week when he was seen waddling down the road near the Lehman Trailer Court. Although he wouldn't fly, he was walking rather rapidly and the Dallas Post photographer had a hard time getting him to stand still enough to have his picture taken. (Photo by Ed Campbell)

The Back Mountain Police Association recently presented a check for $785 to the March of Dimes. The donation represents money raised at the recent Snow-Softball game and Balloon Derby held by the Police Association. Shown here during the check presentation are, from left, James Tupper, patrolman, Dallas Borough Police Department, chairman of the event; Bob Prosser, executive director, March of Dimes; and Tom Casey, chief, Courtdale Police Department and president of the Back Mountain Police Association.
