LL students present 'Pink Panther' play

Lake-Lehman High School students will present "The Pink Panther Strikes Again" on Friday, March 30, and Saturday, March 31. The curtain will open at 7:30 p.m. each night.

Tickets, at $2 for adults and $1 for students, may be purchased from any theater student or at the door.

The play is being directed by Mrs. Jean Lipski, Theater Productions instructor; and Sue Bonsavage, student director.

The role of Chief Inspector

Clouseau will be portrayed by senior Stu Thomas. Other major roles include senior Paul Jones as Dreyfus and Karen Holmgren as Olga. The supporting cast is comprised of approximately 40 other Lake-Lehman students, grades nine through 12.

The high school auditorium will be filled with pink panthers, assassins and most of all laughs as the Lake-Lehman students bring Clouseau and his friends to the Back Mountain.

Council schedules 'Read-A-T-Shirt' Day

The Lake-Lehman E.C.I.A. Chapter I Reading-Math Staff and Parent Advisory Council are conducting "Read-a-T-Shirt" day on Thursday, March 29, in all of the elementary buildings. Students are encouraged to wear their favorite "T-shirt with a saying" on this day. Faculty and staff members are also encouraged to wear their favorite readable T-shirt. The purpose of this project is to get students to read, react, and learn, without realizing it.

The "Read-a-T-Shirt" day is being held as a finale to the "Hang-Ups" project, which has been held throughout the month of March. "Hang-Ups" are signs containing a word, phrase, sentence, question or riddle, which are displayed at various locations in the school. Students, teachers, faculty-staff members, parents and visitors have all enjoyed reading the signs. The project has been termed a great success, and the Chapter I staff hopes to conduct this project annually.

Parent Advisory Council members who participated in this project are Bonnie Naugle, Mary Grace Konopinski, Lenore Rosencrans, Beth Chamberlain, and Florence Campbell.
