Brownies learn about child safety awareness

Brownie Troops 650 and 654 are participating in a "Child Safety Awareness Program" through April 30. With the aid of Cadet Troop 642, under the leadership of Geri Wall, the Brownies are learning about safe procedures in many areas.

Guest speakers for the program include:

Jack Dodson and Carol Shelhamer from Commonwealth Telephone Co., who will speak on telephone safety; Fire Chief Bob Besecker from the Dallas Fire Co., who will speak on Fire Safety; Police Chief Carl Miers from the Dallas Township Police Department who will speak on "Lost and Found"; leaders Jackie Downend and Julie Roan who will speak on Basic First Aid and assistant leaders Diane Bryant and Karen Rittenhouse.

Through guest speakers, crafts, games, home assignments and skits, the Brownies will be aware of how to function under some of the emergency situations that young children have to face in their homes and in today's world.

Girls of the year

The Harveys Lake Women's Service Club presented "The Girls of the Year" recently at their meeting held at the Lake Noxen School. Eight girls were selected from the Lake-Lehman School District and honored for their Scholastic and civic activities. Mrs. Karen Boback, Chairman of Education for the Harveys Lake Women's Service Club, introduced the girls to club members and guests. Each of the young women spoke of their accomplishments and their future goals. The guest speaker for this meeting was Dr. Chuck LaJeunesse. Girls of the Year are shown here. From left, Susan Dicon, Julie Napieralski, Debbie Haeefe, Cathy Major, Janet McCarroll, Holly Swartz, Kellie Knapich, Mrs. Karen Boback, Chairman and Mrs. Carol Llewellyn, Club President. Absent from photo is Bonnie Perago.

Parker, Killian vows exchanged

Shavertown United Methodist Church was the setting for the recent marriage of Estella J. Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford K. Parker, Sr., of Shavertown, and Attorney Stephen B. Killian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen F. Killian, of Tilbury Terrace, West Naticoke.

Dr. Wallace F. Stettler, President of Wyoming Seminary, performed the candlelight ceremony assisted by Reverend James E. Wert.

The bride was attired in an heirloom ivory slipper-satin dress with fitted bodice and featuring a standing Elizabethan collar and covered buttons. The full skirt ended in a chapel length train. Her shoulder length veil was attached to a seeded pearl hat.

Bridal attendants were Jo Ann Deacon, Roxanne Clune and Carol Buchanan, cousin of the groom.

They were attired in identical gowns of frost rose tissue taffeta with an open neckline, fitted basque bodice, and a slightly full skirt. They each carried bouquets of spring flowers complimenting those carried by the bride.

Attorney J. Stewart Husid, college classmate of the groom, served as best man. John H. Graham was head usher. Groomsmen were: Attorney Peter J. Savage, Jr., Clifford K. Parker, Jr. and Sean D. Parker.

A cocktail reception followed the ceremony at the Westmoreland Club, Wilkes-Barre.

Parents of the bridegroom entered tained the wedding party and out of town guests at a rehearsal dinner at the Irem Temple Country Club.

The bride is a graduate of Wilkes College and is currently the Public Relations Director for the Greater Wilkes-Barre Chamber of Commerce.

Attorney Killian is a graduate of Wyoming Seminary and Dickinson College, and received his juris doctorate degree from Dickinson School of Law. He is a partner in the law firm of Savage & Killian, Wilkes-Barre.

Following a wedding trip to Bermuda, the couple will reside in Kingston.
