The Pennsylvania State University Cooperative Extension Service of Luzerne County is sponsoring the "1984 Sewarama" on Saturday, April 28, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in Pomeroy's Community Room, Second floor, Wyoming Valley Mall.

Everyone interested in sewing is invited to attend. Three sessions will be held throughout the day. Other topics to be discussed: what is new in sewing machines and the how's, why's and when's of purchasing a new machine.

"Sewing for Your Home" will be presented by Barbara Herr, Luzerne County Extension Home Economist, and Mary Ann Shades, Extension Volunteer. This session will focus on easy techniques and ideas for sewing the latest home accessories for yourself or as gifts.

Highlighting the day will be Clotilde, well-known lecturer and author of the book Sew Smart, with a two hour presentation on "Sew for the $500 Look". All participants will receive a certificate of attendance and a packet of directions for the "Sewing for Your Home" session.

Solo

"Usually, we go out every Saturday night," he said. "We either go to the V.F.W. in Dupont or the Leisure II Tavern in West Pittston to dance and have a good time."

Other events such as Christmas and Valentine's Day parties, and an annual trip to Atlantic City are planned throughout the year.

Anyone who is at least 35 years of age, and is either single, divorced, legally separated or widowed can join the club. There's a $2.00 initiation fee, and dues of $1.00 a month after that. If a member attends the events regularly for six months, his or her dues drop to $10.00 a year.

All money goes back into the club's treasury for such expenses as bands and caterers.

Finnerty feels that the club serves more than one purpose.

"Not only is the club a good way to meet other single people," he said, "but I feel it's a good therapy for those of us who have been divorced, separated, or widowed. By being a member of the club, you don't have to visit all the single bars alone. We've even had a few couples get married."

If you would like to join the Solo Club, call Finnerty at 287-4365 or Gene Schray at 675-1704.

The concluding event will be a "Jamboree Show" Saturday, May 5, starting at 8 p.m. featuring the top three choruses, the Wilkes-Barre Chapter Chorus, the Intermediate Chorus winners, plus the five winning quartets from the contest and the Novice Quartet Champs.
