WILKES-BARRE GENERAL HOSPITAL'S special sibling class, "Our New Addition" will be held on Monday, April 23 at 6:30 p.m. at the hospital. The two-hour class, held every eight weeks, is designed to promote family bonding and to help lessen the anxiety of a child who might feel threatened by the arrival of a new baby in the family.

The class is open to parents who are already enrolled in General's childbirth course and their children, and to others expecting a baby within two months of the sibling class.

To register or for more information, call the hospital's Education Department, 829-8111, ext. 2300.

Other class dates are June 18, Aug. 13, Oct. 8 and Dec. 3.

THE SCHOOL OF EXTENDED PROGRAMS at Bloomsburg University is offering three week-long summer microcomputer camps in June and July for boys and girls in grades 6-12.

Directed by Dr. Harold J. Bailey, professor of mathematics and computer science, each camp offers 28 hours of intensive classroom and laboratory instruction in the field of microcomputer graphics. Participants will learn to create graphic images on Apple and Franklin microcomputers using BASIC and LOGO programming languages.

Individualized to suit the needs of each student, the camps can accommodate students of varying computer backgrounds, from beginners with no experience to those with more advanced skills.

For more information on these and other summer camps to be conducted at Bloomsburg University this summer season, write for a free brochure from the School of Extended Programs, Waller Administration Building, Bloomsburg University, Bloomsburg, PA 17815 or phone (717) 389-4420.

WILKES-BARRE GENERAL HOSPITAL will hold a seven-week course in Prepared Childbirth, beginning Monday, April 30, from 7-9 p.m. The classes are designed to prepare expectant couples for labor and delivery through lectures, films, visual aids and individual instruction.

The course provides a comprehensive explanation of childbirth from the final trimester, through labor and delivery, to infant nutrition and breastfeeding. An added feature includes a video tape stressing the importance of using infant car seats. A number of other topics, plus relaxation and breathing exercises are also introduced.

Classes are conducted by registered nurses from General's Department of Obstetrics. Karen Evans, R.N. and Peggy Johnson, R.N. are class coordinators.

Those attending the classes should be so in conjunction with regular visits to a physician. Both couples and single parents are welcome to take the course, regardless of the hospital in which they plan to deliver. To register or request additional information, contact Wilkes-Barre General's Education Department.

Clinics

NESBITT MEMORIAL HOSPITAL, Kingston will offer "Free" Blood Pressure screenings throughout the month of April. All screenings are conducted from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. each evening.

Employees from Nesbitt Memorial Hospital volunteer their time to conduct the screenings assisted by community volunteers in conjunction with the American Heart Association.

Screenings are scheduled for: Wednesday, April 18 at the Medical Arts Building, 534 Wyoming Ave., Kingston.

Thursday, April 19 at Nesbitt's Outpatient Satellite Center, 1701 Wyoming Avenue, Exeter.

Seminars

WHAT KIND OF CALL DO YOU NEED to entice one of those bronze beauties? What techniques are used to assist me in outsmarting that bearded game bird? Knowing the answer to these questions may just be that little edge necessary to finally fill out a turkey tag. So, let's talk turkey.

To better acquaint you with the proper calling methods, hunting ethics, hunting safety, proper equipment and the future of turkey management, the Pennsylvania Game Commission will host a Wild Turkey Seminar on Saturday, April 21, 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Holiday Inn, Route 115, Wilkes-Barre.

Novice hunters, as well as experienced hunters, are encouraged to attend this session. This program is designed to assist everyone in safe hunting methods and to make you a better turkey caller.

Numerous turkey calls will be on display and will be made available for those who wish to purchase one from a champion.

The session is open to the public and is free of charge.

Programs

THE VICTIMS RESOURCE CENTER: Comprehensive Services

for Rape and Sexual Abuses will present a program on prevention of Child Sexual Misuse at the Wilkes College Library, corner of South Franklin and South Streets, Wednesday, April 18, at 7 p.m., in observance of Victims Rights Week.

Victims Rights Week is an occasion to make the public aware of the need crime victims have for rights equal to that of offenders. This year, Victims Rights Week began April 15.

Parents, teachers and concerned citizens are encouraged to attend. Children aged 5 and up are invited, as well. Please call the Victims Resource Center at 823-0766 if you plan to attend.

Theater

WHEN THE PAJAMA GAME, the laugh filled musical saga of labor vs. management opens at the Music Box in Swoyersville on April 27, all members of the International Ladies Garment Workers union will be entitled to a $1.00 discount on any performance during the four week run.

Union members will be able to see this comedic gem, featuring such well loved tunes as "Hey There", "Hernando's Hideaway", and "Steam Heat" for $17.50 on Thursday through Saturday performances, and $15.50 for Sunday matinees. The discount will be given when a Union card is shown at the Box Office at the time of purchasing or picking up the tickets. Employee cards from local dress factories will also be acceptable identification.

The Pajama Game abounds with comic and romantic situations at the Sleep-Tite Pajama Factory in the 1950's. Union members will especially appreciate the hijinks, and will probably see many comparisons with their own workplaces.

The reduced ticket price includes both the performance and the full buffet meal. Show only tickets will not receive the same discount. Discounted or regular tickets may be secured by calling the Box Office at 283-2195.

Come and play The Pajama Game and look for the union label!

Exhibits

THE WYOMING HISTORICAL AND GEOLOGICAL SOCIETY is presenting an exhibit entitled "Tourists in an Industrial Scene: Mauch Chunk, Pennsylvania," through May 31, 1984, at its museum located at 69 South Franklin Street, Wilkes-Barre, behind the Osterhout Free Library.

The exhibit consists of photographic reproductions of prints, paintings, and photographs documenting the history of Mauch Chunk as a tourist resort and anthracite transportation center from 1829 to the present. In addition to the 54 images in the show, a number of souvenirs sold at Mauch Chunk during the height of its tourism boom and pieces of equipment used on the Switchback Railroad are included.

The exhibit was assembled by Mr. John Sears of Vassar College and Mr. Gerald Bastoni, Lehigh University Art Galleries, and funded in part by the Pennsylvania Humanities Council. Admission is free and open to the public. Hours of the museum are Tuesday through Friday, 12 noon until 4 p.m. and Saturday, 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. Following its stay in Wilkes-Barre, the exhibit will be on view at the Eckley Miners' Village from June 15 through July 15.

The Wyoming Historical and Geological Society is a non-profit educational institution dedicated to preserving and interpreting the history of Luzerne County.

AN EXHIBITION OF CONTEMPORARY PRINTS by 17 artists will be exhibited at the Wilkes College Sordani Art Gallery from April 15 until May 13.

The show is entitled "Simca and Parosol: Two Presses-Two Processes." The prints are from the two important presses, Simca, specializing in silkscreen and Parosol which specializes in etching.

Gallery hours are Sunday through Friday, 1-5 p.m.; Saturday, 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. and on Thursday evenings until 9 p.m. All exhibitions are open to the public at no charge.

Sales

A RUMMAGE AND WHITE ELEPHANT SALE will be held on Saturday, April 28, from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the Mountaintop Grange Hall. The sale is being conducted by the Pomona Grange No. 44.

Mountaintop Grange is located on

Eighth Street, Carverton, across from the Carverton Monument Co.

Refreshments will be available for purchase throughout the day.

THE NATIONAL ARBOR DAY FOUNDATION is giving 10 free Colorado Blue Spruce trees to people who become Foundation Members during April, 1984.

The National Arbor Day Foundation, a non-profit organization, is working to improve the quality of life throughout the country by encouraging tree planting and conservation. The Foundation will give the 10 free trees to members contributing $10 during April.

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, a $10 membership contribution should be sent to TEN BLUE SPRUCES, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, Neb. 68410, by April 30, 1984.

THE FRESH AIR OF SPRING-TIME is finally making its way into the Wyoming Valley and very soon the grass will grow greener and the pink and white Japanese Kwansan Cherry Blossoms will be in full bloom. These trees not only mark the arrival of spring in the Wilkes-Barre area but they also serve as the underlying theme of the annual Springtime celebration.

The Greater Wilkes-Barre Chamber of Commerce is again giving area residents a chance to bring the beauty of spring into their own yard. These ever-popular saplings average about six feet in height and mature to about 25 feet. The cost per tree is $25 and they are being sold at the Green Valley Landscaping, Northampton St., Kingston.

Hurry to get your springtime bouquet while they last. To reserve a tree, contact Tilly Kalish at the Chamber, 823-2101.

Dinners

SERAFINO "FOGE" FAZIO, Head Football Coach at the University of Pittsburgh, will headline the eighth annual Pitt Golden Panther banquet to be held on Thursday, May 3, at the Treadway Inn, Scranton.

Also appearing with Fazio on the program will be consensus All-American tackle Bill Fralic, quarterback John Congemi, linebacker Troy Benson and flanker Bill Wallace.

For ticket information contact radio station WICK or Dr. John Boylan (587-0363), in Scranton and Dr. Sam Falcone (825-9357) or Pat Adonizio (829-7899) in Wilkes-Barre.
