Clinics

THE MOTHER-TO-BE PROGRAM at Nesbitt Hospital offers excellent obstetrical health care to the area's expectant mothers. It is held every Tuesday at 4 p.m. in the hospital's Medical Arts Building, 534 Wyoming Avenue, Kingston.

Program participants meet with staff members to ascertain a complete medical history. They are then assigned to a physician who will care for them during all stages of pregnancy. The program is completed with a check-up six weeks after discharge from the hospital.

The Mother-To-Be Program's services include regular monthly examinations, blood work and ultrasound procedures. An eight-week prenatal education program is available to parents providing information about natural childbirth and care of the newborn.

For information on the Mother-To-Be Program, contact Nesbitt Memorial Hospital's Obstetrics Department at 288-8959.

Screenings

NESBITT MEMORIAL HOSPITAL has scheduled "free" blood pressure screenings at a number of its Outpatient Satellite Center throughout the month of May.

The screenings are conducted by employees of Nesbitt Memorial Hospital from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. each evening. Hospital volunteers are also on hand to assist with the screenings, which are offered in conjunction with the American Heart Association.

A screening has been scheduled for:

Tuesday, May 15 at Nesbitt's Outpatient Satellite Center, Narrows Shopping Center, Edwinstown and Wednesday, May 16 at the Medical Arts Building, 534 Wyoming Avenue, Kingston.

Courses

SPRING VOLUNTEER TRAINING SESSIONS at the Victims Resource Center will begin on Saturday, May 12 at 9 a.m. at the center, 132 South Franklin Street, Wilkes-Barre.

Volunteer opportunities include committee participation, office assistance, court accompaniment, public speaking, and counseling. Persons interested in becoming volunteers must complete 18 hours of basic training, while those who wish to become Sexual Assault or "On-Call" Counselors must complete 40 hours of training.

No previous experience or specialized training is required to qualify for training, but interested persons must schedule a pre-interview prior to registering.

An Open House will be held at the center on Saturday, May 5, from 3 to 7 p.m. for persons interested in learning more about volunteer opportunities. Pre-interviews will be scheduled at this time. For more information, or to schedule a pre-interview, call 823-0766, Monday through Friday 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

THE WYOMING VALLEY CHAPTER, American Red Cross will conduct an Advanced First Aid Progression course in West Wyoming.

This course is designed to provide individuals who hold currently valid certificates in Standard or Multimedia First Aid with a skill and knowledge progression to the Advanced First Aid and Emergency Care course level for certification.

This course will meet on Tuesday and Thursdays, from May 10 through June 7, from 7 to 10 p.m. at West Wyoming Borough Building.

To register, call Safety Services at 823-7161.

Workshops

A MANAGEMENT SERIES OF WORKSHOPS FOR NURSES in long term care facilities will be conducted by Penn State's Department of Continuing Education in three evening sessions from 6 to 9 p.m. The first two sessions, on May 21 and May 29 will meet at the Summit Health Care Center, Wilkes-Barre, on the third session on June 4, will be held at Penn State's Worthington-Scranton Campus at Dunmore.

The nine-hour program for nurse managers will focus on motivation, performance appraisals and time management skills related to current management problems in long term care facilities. Instructors will be Peter J. Yestrumkas, B.S., M.B.A., director of administrative services at the White Haven Center, and Charles T. Utt, B.S., C.M., labor relations coordinator at Clarks Summit State Hospital. Participants in the series will receive a certificate of 0.9 CEU earned at the completion. The $25 fee per person includes instruction and course materials. For more information contact Ms. Ina Lubin, Health Care Programming Coordinator, Penn State, Wilkes-Barre, Lehman, Pa. 18627, (717) 675-2171.

MOST MANAGERS KNOW THAT IN ORDER TO BE MORE EFFECTIVE THEMSELVES, they should delegate responsibilities, but everyone doesn't know how to do that. Delegating is an art - and that's the title of a management seminar to be held May 22 from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Genetti's Best Western, Wilkes-Barre.

The seminar, "The Art of Delegation," is sponsored by Penn State Wilkes-Barre Department of Continuing Education. It includes such topics as delegation without fear, what should be delegated, barriers to delegation, reverse delegation and non-delegatable responsibilities.

The fee of $85 per person includes instructional materials and lunch. Registration information is available from Mrs. Sharon Ward in the continuing education department of Penn State Wilkes-Barre 675-2171.

"TRANSITION FROM SECRETARY TO MANAGER" is the title of a workshop designed for secretaries and office personnel who are about to be promoted, or who would like to be promoted, into supervisory positions. It will be held May 10 from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Sheraton Crossgates in Wilkes-Barre, sponsored by Penn State Wilkes-Barre Department of Continuing Education.

In addition to covering management principles and personal characteristics needed by the new supervisor, workshop information is intended to create an awareness in secretaries and office personnel of their potential for management. The $65 cost for the workshop includes lunch.

To register or obtain more information, contact Mrs. Sharon Ward in the Continuing Education Office at Penn State Wilkes-Barre 675-2171, ext. 220.

Concerts

MRS. JUNE BLUM, president, Temple Israel Congregation, 236 S. River St., Wilkes-Barre, announces that Ms. Constance Stern has been appointed chairman of the fifth annual Myne and Nat Levy Distinguished Concert in Jewish Music to be held Sunday evening, May 20, at 8 p.m. in the Temple Israel sanctuary.

Following the concert, the audience is invited to participate in a reception in the Temple vestry in honor of Maestro Feidman and his trio. The concert is open to the public and there is no admission charge.

TRUCKSVILLE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH will sponsor a concert by the Cap and Bell Singers of Wilkes College on Sunday, May 13, at 7:30 p.m. The concert will be directed by Richard Chapline, a member of the Wilkes College music faculty.

The program will consist of a performance of Robin Hood by Reginald de Koven. First performed in 1890, Robin Hood was a popular favorite for many years with audiences in Boston, Chicago, New York and Philadelphia who regarded de Koven as the equal of Victor Herbert.

Recently revived by the Cap and Bell Singers, the work has been extensively performed throughout Northeastern Pennsylvania with great success and acclaim for its attractive melodious score.

Dinners

THE NORTHMORELAND TOWNSHIP VOLUNTEER FIRE CO. will hold a Mother's Day Breakfast on Sunday, May 13, at the Northmoreland Township Fire Hall in Centermoreland.

Cost is $3 for adults, $1.50 for children and preschool kids can eat for free. Serving will be from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m. and it will be an all-you-can-eat affair.
